New Municipal Aid Indicated on Way By Throne Speech

Would Alleviate Rising Costs Of Social Security, Services

New measures to aid municipalities and alleviate the situation caused by rising cost of social security and other public services will be presented to the Legislature during the present session.

This was confirmed in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the House yesterday.

While the Speech did not indicate the form new legislation would take, or whether it would make provision for imposition of a sales tax, the fact that it was named first of coming action was taken to mean that the Government regards it as the most important legislation of the session.

"Careful study has been given to a number of provincial-municipal problems, as well as to the rising cost of social security and other important public services," the Speech said.

"My Government is aware of the situation created thereby and proposes to place before you measures designed to alleviate this situation."

It noted also that "the serious condition of the hospital situation is engaging the attention of my Government, and proposals are being studied with a view to finding a solution to this problem."

Other new legislative proposals briefly referred to by His Honor included:

1. Revision of labor laws for "further improvements in employer-employee relations."
2. Increases in certain allowances under the Workmen's Compensation Act.
3. Important amendments to the Forest Act to widen scope of the sustained yield program.
4. "Ample provision" for further improvement of main highways and completion of major public works projects already undertaken.
5. Amending legislation to improve the agriculture industry.
6. New method of admission to mental hospitals to provide for clinic treatment.
7. Provision of new technical personnel and facilities for British Columbia Research Council to deal with problems related to industrial chemistry, physics, applied biology, mining and other fields of research.
8. Establishment of a new biological laboratory to develop the fishing industry.

More details and pictures of the opening of the House are on page 3.

Today in the Legislature

3 p.m.—Debate on Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne opens.

Mover, Mrs. Nancy Hodges (Coalition, Victoria); seconder, Air Vice-Marshal L. F. Stevenson (Coalition, Vancouver-Point Grey).

Liquor, Gasoline Taxes Swell Revenue in B.C.

Provincial Government revenue in the fiscal year ended last March 31 exceeded the estimate by $14,665,557.

Public accounts tabled in the House after the opening of the Legislature yesterday showed that the Government, which had budgeted for total revenue of $42,152,369, actually took in $56,617,544.

Expenditures, totaling $46,218,293, were $1,668,220 above the estimate.

But even so, the Province came out with a surplus of $10,502,650, against a 1945-46 surplus of $6,141,863.

Its liquor business, bringing in $4,250,000 more than was expected, was mainly responsible for the big surplus. Estimated at $8,500,000, liquor profits actually yielded $14,758,257.

Gasoline tax, estimated at $4,650,000, produced $5,682,093. Motor Vehicle Act revenue, estimated at $3,035,000, yielded $4,457,764.

Succession duties totaled $2,916,916, against an estimate of $1,500,000.

Dominion Government grants, $13,051,807, showed no variation, since the Dominion-Provincial new tax agreement did not become operative until after the end of the 1946-47 financial year.

Timber royalties and sales revenue totaled $4,360,947. It had been estimated at $3,500,000.

Two Walk Out Over Reading Of Addresses

OTTAWA, March 2 (CP).—Two Liberal members strode from the Commons tonight in protest against what they called the Speaker's "refusal" to enforce a rule against reading of speeches.

The members — George Cruickshank, member for Fraser Valley, and James Sinclair, member for Vancouver North—left after the Speaker, Dr. Gaspard Fauteux, threatened to name them unless they ceased interrupting while J. I. Halem (S.P., St. Maurice-Lafleche) was delivering a speech in French.

Mr. Cruickshank and Mr. Sinclair outlined their views in Mr. Sinclair's office a few minutes after departure from the Green Chamber.

Both stressed their action was not a personal one aimed at Mr. Hamel, nor was it connected with the reading of speeches in French. They believed the rule against reading speeches should apply to all parties.

Mr. Sinclair said he will bring the question up at a Liberal caucus tomorrow.

State to Seek Eight Ferries

SEATTLE, March 2 (AP).—Governor Wallgren today announced plans for the state to go into the ferry business.

Wallgren said the state's plans include an approach to the Puget Sound Navigation Company tomorrow on the purchase of eight of its boats, and institution of condemnation proceedings if the boats can not be obtained at a "reasonable" figure.

Mace Misbehaves, Falls Disturbs House Dignity

Dignity of official opening ceremonies in the Legislature yesterday afternoon was momentarily disturbed when the mace, symbol of authority, fell from the table in front of the Speaker's throne and rolled to the floor.

The incident occurred immediately after the retirement of Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks, following delivery of the Speech from the Throne.

Hon. R. H. Carson, just appointed Speaker of the House, was in the chair when it happened.

The mace rested on its small, gold-braided cushion on the table in front of the chair, indicating that the House was in session.

Eye-witnesses — and there were more than 400 in the House—were in disagreement as to whether Mr. Speaker bumped the table with his knee or upset the mace by touching the cushion.

Whatever the cause, there was a moment of incredulous hush as it crashed to the floor.

Unperturbed, Sergeant-at-Arms W. R. Webster, its custodian, stooped, picked the mace from the floor, and placed it on the hooks below the table, where it remained until the House rose for the day.

Normally, the mace is removed from the table only when the House is in committee.

Oldest members of the Legislature were unable to recall any parallel in the history of British Columbia's Parliament.

A superstitious few toyed with the thought that it might be an omen of something, though they were not prepared to say what.

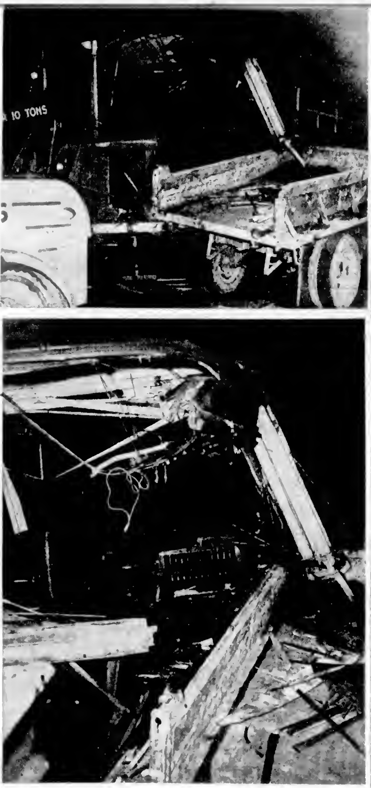
Front, Side of Tram Torn Open in Accident



—Colonist Photos.

Three people were taken to Royal Jubilee Hospital last night following a collision between a street car and a truck at the junction of Oak Bay and Rockland Avenues. Top picture shows the truck embedded in the side of the street car after shearing through 15 feet of its superstructure. Lower photograph indicates extensive damage done to the front and side of the tram. Fragments of glass and wood were scattered over an area of 50 yards.

BULLETINS

New Agency

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP). — A new international agency to protect democratic countries against aggression and subversion was proposed tonight by a group of United States Senators.

It would be outside the United Nations, free of the Russian veto which has stymied many U.N. Security Council moves.

Senator Joseph Ball said he will offer the plan for the proposed "Supreme Council" in the Senate tomorrow as an amendment to the European recovery plan.

Sees Agitation

HELSINKI, March 2 (AP).—The powerful Social Democratic Party accused Finnish Communists tonight of trying to "provoke unrest" in Finland.

Car Found

MONTREAL, March 2 (CP).—The bullet-riddled automobile used by gunmen in two bank holdups on the south shore of the St. Lawrence was recovered by Provincial Police tonight. Police cruisers blocked all roads over a wide area.

Truck-Trolley Collision Injures Three Persons

Three persons were injured and a large number of passengers shaken up when the front and 15 feet of the side of a No. 3 street car were torn off by the terrific impact of a truck-tram collision on Oak Bay Avenue at 7:15 last night.

Traffic was tied up for 90 minutes as a result of the accident which involved two trucks, an automobile and the street car.

Injured were:

James Harper, 3131 Mars Street, driver of the truck, who suffered abrasions and was kept under observation in the hospital;

Norman Richards, 2316 Quadra Street, street car motorman, who escaped with bruises and a severe shaking up;

Joan Dawkins, 1544 Richmond Avenue, a street car passenger, who suffered face lacerations.

City and Oak Bay police, who attended, gave this report of the accident:

A truck driven West on Oak Bay Avenue by Bennie Ramsay, 734 Johnson Street, and towing another truck controlled by Harper, pulled out to pass a car.

Police said that Mrs. Mary J. Wallaston, 1720 Fort Street, attempted a left turn on to Rockland Avenue, after seeing the first truck pass.

Swerving to avoid the car, police said Harper then was in collision with the tram.

The street car, about half-filled with passengers, was traveling east on Oak Bay Avenue. Although glass and wood was scattered over a wide area and damage was extensive, the tram was not derailed. All of the passengers, although badly shaken up, escaped injury.

The truck came to a standstill deep into the side of the street car, with extensive damage to the truck's left side.

"I thought the house had fallen in," H. Brockley, 1790 Oak Bay Avenue, said later. "I was just having a cup of tea when I heard a terrific crash. I rushed outside and all I could see was a cloud of steam coming from the street car."

Out of Gasoline in Week City Operators Predict; Voluntary Ration Ends

Many Dealers Unloading Quotas Motor Trades Body Official Says

A gasoline famine was imminent in Victoria yesterday as service station operators made a determined move to break the deadlock which they claim is costing them hundreds of dollars weekly.

A warning that most of the city's service stations would be out of gasoline in about a week or ten days was issued by officials of the Victoria Branch of the Garage and Motor Trades Association of B.C., which includes the majority of garages in Victoria.

Full monthly quotas of motor fuel are being taken by many service stations and the operators are selling in any quantity desired by the motorist instead of rationing sales to stretch out supplies, thus depleting their stocks, according to H. P. Davis, branch business manager.

"Many commercial trucks and cars will come to a standstill if the situation is not remedied shortly," he said. "Operators are suffering a great loss and are determined to break the deadlock as soon as possible."

Mr. Davis stressed that the delay in settlement has nothing to do with operators.

"Operators are innocent bystanders caught between two factions. This is causing not only a loss because of lack of gasoline for steady customers, but in many cases has resulted in the loss of the same customers," he added.

Operators expressed determination to bring "this unfair practice to a head."

Nineteen Killed In Crash

Three Survive London Accident

LONDON, March 3 (Wednesday) (CP).—In the ghostly glow of floodlights breaking through a thick fog, firemen early today removed 19 bodies from the wreckage of a Belgian Sabena Air Lines plane nearly three hours after it had crashed at London airport. There were 22 persons aboard and only three survivors.

Mystery surrounded the crash, first major accident at the airport. After hearing the pilot send a radio warning that emergency equipment should be made ready, airport officials next saw lights dimly in the mist a moment before the plane nose-dived to earth and burst into flames.

Position of the wreckage indicated that the pilot had missed the east-west runway and had landed across it instead of on it. But officials said that it was hard to reconstruct exactly what had happened because of the blinding fog.

Saanich Reeve Defies Rule From Council

Defying a definite directive of his council, Reeve E. C. Warren of Saanich, last night served notice that he would order a letter sent to the City of Victoria and the Memorial Airpark Association to ascertain the object of work now being carried out on the site of the proposed airpark at Gordon Head.

Voting on a recommendation of the municipal solicitor that such action be taken before any move was made to enforce zoning by-laws, the Saanich council rejected the proposal by a four-to-three vote.

Declaring the motion defeated, Reeve Warren told the council he had a prerogative and "was going to use it."

"I'm going to order the letter sent anyway," he said.

Discussion arose out of a request from the Ward Three Saanich Ratepayers' Association that immediate action be taken to stop the city and the airpark group from carrying out work on the site while the present zoning by-law is in force.

NO BREACH

In a letter to the council, the municipal solicitor had explained that the mere act of levelling was not a breach of the zoning by-law, and suggested that the city and the airpark group be asked to state the object of such work.

Supporting the ratepayers' demands, Councillor J. L. Hobbs asked for immediate action to stop "this flouting of municipal by-laws."

"How can any elected representatives of the City of Victoria approve work in Saanich that is against our by-laws?" he asked.

He maintained that the work was being done "by a small group of persons in the City of Victoria who don't own a nickel's worth of land in Saanich, to my knowledge."

One of the four opposers of the motion, Councillor L. H. Passmore said, "until such time as they start to build we have no obligation to ask them what they are doing."

School Attendance Drops As 'Flu Incidence Rises

Influenza among children is causing widespread absenteeism from schools in the Greater Victoria area, it was learned yesterday. It is reported to be the worst epidemic in several years.

Dr. J. L. Gayton, who took up his duties this week as city health officer in a move from the Saanich health district, said absenteeism in some Saanich schools was running as high as one-third of the classes. Other schools were relatively unaffected.

Dr. John H. Preston, Victoria-Esquimalt school health officer, was more conservative in his estimates of the incidence of 'flu in the city. He said attendance in some classes had been lowered by 25 per cent.

Both medical officers advised parents to keep children home and in bed until completely recovered.

Dr. Gayton pointed out that the danger of serious complications was very much greater if children were sent back to school before they were completely cured.

Although no statistical reports are available, influenza is reported to be much more prevalent among the adult population than for several years past.

Many firms report office staffs decimated with workers home sick with sniffles and aching bones.

Witness Tells Committee Of Competition

OTTAWA, March 2 (CP).—A loaf of bread retailing for ten cents was described to the Commons Price Committee today as the equal of any in Eastern Canada, some of which sell for up to 14 cents.

This claim was made by George W. Bird of Toronto, purchasing agent for the A. and P. grocery chain, who said his company manufactures and sells a ten-cent loaf of such quality.

Mr. Bird made the statement after Health Minister Martin, committee chairman, had observed that other witnesses had contended a 14-cent price was warranted.

Competitive conditions in the baking industry came under the eye of the committee as it pursued its inquiry into higher bread prices, and it was told the business was one of fierce competition that tended to drive down prices.

R. P. Sparks, executive secretary of the industry's national council, described it as 100 per cent competitive.

City Lighting Costs Less During 1948

City street lighting committee halted the trend of recent years toward steadily increasing expenditure yesterday by approving an estimate of $86,495 for the current year. This represented a drop of $973 from last year.

The estimates have been forwarded to the city comptroller for inclusion in the city budget.

The committee had critically examined every proposed expenditure in view of the financial difficulties of the city this year, Ald. F. G. Mulliner, committee chairman, stated. With increased costs of labor and material it had been found necessary to limit new work to the minimum and to exercise economy in maintenance work.

He pointed out, however, that the reductions will in no way affect the program of street lighting improvements authorized by ratepayers in the $108,000 by-law in 1946. Very little work has been done on this program because of inability to obtain equipment. Most of the critical items have now arrived and it is expected much of the work can be done this year.

Only major items of new work included in this year's estimates are $8,750 for replacement of lighting standards along Dallas Road which have been eroded by salt spray, and placing new lights along Dallas Road between Douglas and Cook Streets at a cost of $4,375.

Would Boost War Pensions

OTTAWA, March 2 (CP).—J. L. Gibson (Ind.-Comox-Alberni) charged today in the Commons that the Government was not treating disabled war veterans as favorably as it treated civilians who remained at home during the war and purchased Victory Bonds.

The 41-year-old member who entered the Commons in 1945 said that as a civilian he could not understand the Government's "niggardliness" with respect to pensions for disabled veterans.

Participating in continued debate on the Throne Speech, Mr. Gibson said the Government could only be congratulated for the way it protected public funds, but he did not think anyone would oppose higher pensions for veterans.

Drew Contends Government Aware Of Threat of Pacific War in 1941

TORONTO, March 2 (CP).—Premier Drew of Ontario said tonight that "in seeking to convey the impression that he was unaware of the threat of early war in the Pacific prior to the departure of the Hongkong force in October, 1941," Prime Minister Mackenzie King "is simply piling falsehood on falsehood."

The Premier was commenting in a statement on Mr. King's denial in the House of Commons at Ottawa today that he or the Canadian Government knew, before the sailing of the Canadian Hongkong expedition in 1941, that war was imminent in the Pacific.

Mr. King said "that both before and after the expedition sailed, and, indeed, until the very eve of the Japanese attack, such information as I received from the British authorities was to the effect that an early attack upon Hongkong was not anticipated."

But Premier Drew's statement said: "The dispatches to which he refers left no doubt of the threat of war. They were open to no other interpretation placed upon them by Major Power (former Canadian Air Minister C. G. Power), who was the acting minister of national defence at the time of the departure of the Hongkong force.

"This is what he said about these dispatches in his evidence before the commission (the Royal Commission inquiring into circumstances surrounding the departure of the Hongkong force): 'I felt, perhaps without any sound basis except having read the dispatches, that there was a very good chance of war breaking out with Japan.'"

In Ottawa the Commons heard Prime Minister Mackenzie King say today that "until the very eve of the Japanese attack, such information as I received from the British authorities was to the effect that an early attack upon Hongkong was not anticipated."

Rising at House opening, Mr. King raised a question of privilege about an Ottawa Citizen story.

It was in effect alleged that before the Canadians sailed "I received messages from the United Kingdom Government in the nature of the most complete warning of the probability of early hostilities."

Mr. King continued:

"Not only is such a statement not correct, but the fact is that both before and after the expedition sailed and indeed until the very eve of the Japanese attack such information as I received from the British authorities was to the effect that an early attack upon Hongkong was not anticipated.

Britons' Life "More Drab Than in War"

Life in Britain today is drab—a life filled with restrictions and more severe food rationing than was known in war years, according to Miss Dorothy Heneker who spoke before the Kiwanis Club yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

First president of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Womens Clubs, Miss Heneker spent all the war years in Great Britain as a lecturer, visiting many military bases and other establishments.

In her address entitled "Britain in War and Peace," she recalled a number of personal experiences, observations and impressions.

After remarking on the courage, good humor, and tenacity of the people of that country through the war years, she said "and even today, in spite of their many problems, those people are maintaining those fine qualities."

She told of welfare and development plans now being implemented throughout Britain, based on plans made during the war years. Plans for the development within the country's colonial Empire are well ahead, she said, and already 642 schemes have been implemented, while more than 100 research schemes had been started since the war's end. Among Britain's many problems, she added, was the country's increasing population.

Miss Heneker was thanked by Ralph Matthews, immediate past president of the club.

Skating, Skiing On Schedule Of "Y" Events

Next Y.M.C.A. skating trip to Nanaimo will leave at 6.45 p.m. March 9, Bob Morrison, program director, announced yesterday.

Mr. Morrison said two buses will be employed to carry 66 persons, and there is still room for another 13 persons.

Providing roads are passible to the Forbidden Plateau Lodge, a "Y" ski trip will leave here March 12, and there is a strong possibility of another trip on Easter week-end.

Reports from the Plateau are that enthusiasts are skiing off the lodge roof and conditions are ideal. Vehicular traffic is getting into the lodge without too much difficulty.

An educational bus tour will be held to the Okanagan Valley, leaving here on the midnight boat July 3 and leaving Vancouver on a chartered 33-passenger bus the next morning. The trip will last one week and reservations should be made early at the "Y."

Purse Robber Garners $70

Theft of $70 in bills from her purse was reported to city police yesterday by Mrs. T. C. Haworth, 215 Maitland Street. Mrs. Haworth said the money had been in a wallet in her purse which had been left in the kitchen of her home, between 10.30 p.m. on Monday and 11 a.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Katherine Rowe, 2323 Wark Street, told police yesterday that her wallet, lost in the city on February 28, had been mailed back to her. The contents of the purse were intact, she said, with the exception of the $60 which is still missing. The package containing the wallet bore a Vancouver postmark, she reported.

Saanich council approved the purchase of approximately 700 feet of 16-inch cast iron water pipe from Kelowna at a cost of $7 per foot. The pipe will make up a part of the 7,000 feet needed by the municipality for improvements to the water distribution system.

Sale of ten lots on Daffodil Avenue, for $65 each, to R. E. Harrison, 1099 Jasmine Avenue, was approved by the Saanich council last night. To Reinstate Five Officers

VANCOUVER, March 2 (CP).—Police Commission here today ordered the reinstatement of five police officers discharged in a shakeup a year ago.

The commission ruled that the men, four detectives and a detective-sergeant, are to be re-employed at the rank of not less than first class constables.

The men are part of a group of 17 officers who were discharged and who have applied to the commission for reinstatement. Disposition of the appeals of the other 12 men has not yet been decided. It is indicated that the other discharged officers will also be re-employed.

Surplus Revenue of March '47 Cut by Outlay to $4,305,000

Although British Columbia's surplus revenue account stood at $27,844,352 last March 31, money actually available now for allocation from the account has dwindled to less than one-sixth that amount.

Following tabling of public accounts in the Legislature yesterday, Finance Minister Herbert Anscomb issued a statement in which he said that, with the exception of some $4,305,000 all of the reserves had definitely been committed.

This was despite the fact that during the fiscal year 1946-47, the Province enjoyed the largest net revenue surplus in its history, $10,502,650.

According to the minister's statement, expenditures by way of capital borrowings totaled $15,019,142, made up as follows:

Highways, $4,918,937
Bridges, $374,888
Ferries, $542,026
Equipment fund, $500,000
Buildings and furnishings, $229,575.
Building at University of British Columbia, $592,364.
Pacific Great Eastern Railway, $160,000.
Farmers' land clearing assistance fund, $75,000.
Loans to British Columbia Power Commission, $7,611,350.

In addition, expenditures from revenue surplus account aggregated $4,652,490. These included $238,863 in additional cost of living bonus to old age pensioners, $75,000 for construction of emergency accommodation at U.B.C.; $1,000,000 to offset in part shortages in the provincial sinking fund account; $100,930 for mining roads and trails, and $2,074,522 for roads, bridges, ferries, paving, garages, machinery and gravel crushing.

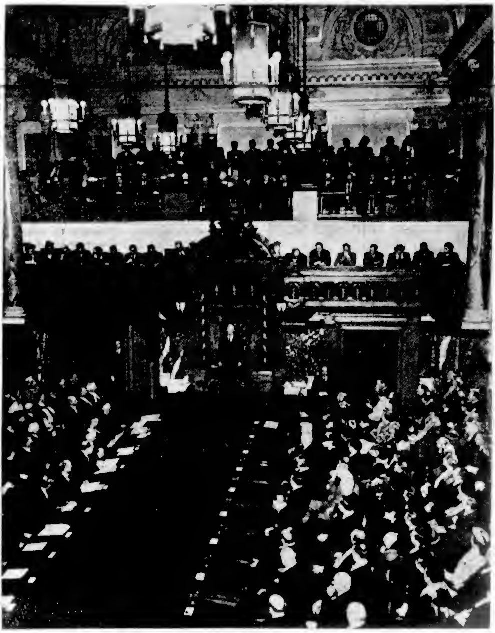
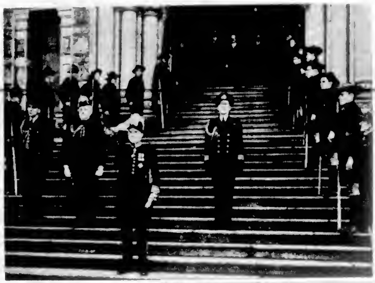
Province's 21st Legislature Starts Third Session





—Colonist Photos by Bud Kinsman.

MANY Victorians were present yesterday to watch formalities that launched third session of British Columbia's 21st Legislature on its way. Top left picture shows Hon. R. H. Carson, Legislature's new Speaker, in the chair, immediately after his election by House. Treasury benches are on left, temporarily pushed together to make room for large number of guests privileged to have places on floor of House. Top right photo shows His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks, attired in cocked hat and gold-braided tunic of civil uniform, taking Royal Salute from composite naval and military bands at formal opening. Immediately behind His Honor are Cmdr. Hew Paterson, right of picture, Lt.-Col. F. Brooke J. Stephenson and Wing Cmdr. D. D. Campbell, left. At top of steps in background are Premier Byron Johnson, flanked by Deputy Provincial Secretary R. A. Pennington, and Percy Richards, premier's executive assistant. Lower picture shows Premier Johnson greeting Col. Banks at main entrance with Mr. Pennington in rear.

Gold Key Missing but Sun Shines On 50th Anniversary of Opening

Fifty years ago, in drizzling rain, Lieutenant-Governor T. R. McInnes, with a key of solid gold, formally opened British Columbia's Parliament Buildings and the 1898 session of its Legislative Assembly.

Yesterday, in a blaze of warm sunshine, Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks officially opened the third session of the Province's 21st Legislature. The gold key was missing, but Col Banks took note of the historic occasion.

In his Speech from the Throne traditionally setting the wheels of another session in motion, His Honor said

"The convening of this Legislature marks the anniversary of an important historic event. It is 50 years ago that the present Parliament Buildings were officially opened.

"Much has been accomplished since that date, and I am confident that the passage of another 50 years will witness development far surpassing anything experienced in the history of this Province."

YEAR BROUGHT CHANGES

Though the passage of half a century brought few changes in the pattern of official opening ceremonies, the passage of one year brought several within the Legislative Chamber

Premier Byron Johnson for the first time sat at the desk used since 1941 by John Hart, who sat among the private members

Hon. W. T. Straith was in the House as Minister of Education, succeeding Dr G. M. Weir, who is recuperating from serious illness.

Robert H. Carson of Kamloops addressed His Honor as Speaker of the Assembly, marking the Legislature's first change in the Speaker's chair since 1937. His predecessor in office Hon Norman W. Whittaker, sat among the guests as Mr Justice Whittaker

TAKES ROYAL SALUTE

Accompanied by his aides Cmdr Hew Paterson, Lt.-Col F. Brooke J Stephenson, and Wing Cmdr D. D. Campbell, and his private secretary, Capt. J. G Cromack the Lieutenant-Governor dismounted from his car at the foot of the main steps at 2 46 p.m. and took the Royal Salute from the composite band.

While four field artillery pieces fired a 15-gun salute across the waters of the Inner Harbor, Col Banks inspected the guard of honor provided by the Royal Canadian Navy and The Canadian Scottish Regiment addressed a few words to Freeman King, in charge of Boy Scouts who lined the steps, then met Premier Johnson on the steps.

With his new Premier, Col. Banks proceeded to the Executive Chamber, received the beribboned Speech from the Throne and entered the Legislative Chamber with his entourage at 3 p.m.

BRIEF DELAY

There was a brief delay in opening of the session when His Honor discovered that the House had no Speaker—soon rectified after Col Banks had retired, when Premier Johnson moved and Opposition Leader Harold Winch seconded Mr Carson's elevation to the chair

Thereafter, ceremonies followed the customary procedure, with the Lieutenant-Governor's delivery of the Speech, his withdrawal from the chamber, introduction of Bill No 1 establishing precedence of the people's affairs over those of the Crown, passage of formal resolutions and presentation of ministerial reports

Today the business of the House will begin when Mrs Nancy Hodges (Cln., Victoria) will move and Air Vice-Marshal L. F Stevenson (Cln. Vancouver-Point Grey) will second the formal motion of thanks to the Lieutenant-Governor that touches off each session's main debate.

Two constituencies were unrepresented when the House opened Saanich and Cariboo. The House passed a standing vote of regret at the death of Louis LeBourdais, whose Cariboo seat will later be taken by Walter Hogg Coalition candidate in the recent by-election

Saanich seat, formerly held by Mr. Justice Whittaker, will be taken by Arthur J. R. Ash on March 15.

First bill to be introduced in the House was one to amend the Vancouver Enabling Act of 1835 to authorize funding of the city's sinking fund shortage, disposition of proceeds from tax sale properties validation of agreements with Wartime Housing Ltd., and authorization of future housing agreements

The House appointed J. L. Webster (Cln., Rossland-Trail), Dr. J. J. Gillis (Cln., Yale), W. A. C. Bennett (Cln. South Okanagan), H. J. Welch (Cln., Comox) and Harold E. Winch (C.C.F., Vancouver East) a committee to name its eight select standing committees.

May Refer School Estimates To B.C. Board of Arbitration

Greater Victoria school board estimates may have to be referred to a board of arbitration, it was indicated yesterday by Austin I. Curtis, board chairman, after he had learned of City Council action in rejecting the board's estimates for the current year

"We cannot cut the estimates any further without lowering our standards of education in Victoria," he stated, "and it is doubtful if the citizens, particularly parents, will stand for that."

The city's action will be discussed at the regular board meeting March 15.

Mr. Curtis pointed out that salaries cannot be cut because an arbitration board had just made an award for certain increases binding on both the board and teachers.

New Orders in Council Retain 13 B.C. Areas for Public Use

Thirteen areas in various parts of the province totaling 273 acres were set aside for "recreation and enjoyment of the public" by Provincial orders in council signed yesterday. Purpose of the reserves is to assure permanent public access to beauty spots and fishing and hunting areas

Seven of the areas newly set aside are in West Vancouver, on the shores of Burrard Inlet ranging in size from half an acre to three acres

Those reserved in other parts of the province are 22 acres fronting on Seymour Arm of Shuswap Lake 102 acres at the south end of One Eye Lake, 39 acres north of Hope, 15 acres on Glimpse Lake, southeast of Stump Lake, 58 acres at the west end of Indian Point Lake, and 22 acres at the west end of Isaac Lake.

The Government also took action to reserve from alienation the area on Chase River south of Nanaimo, containing ancient Indian petroglyphs recently declared to be historic objects under the Historic Objects Preservation Act.

Shut-Down Of Building Set in July

Construction shutdown this Summer in Victoria to allow for annual holidays is set for the work week of July 18 to 24 by the Victoria [illegible]

An overwhelming majority of members have agreed with the shutdown week, to be the same as in Vancouver, George Wheaton, exchange president said at a dinner meeting at the Strathcona Hotel last night

He said the directors will take the matter up with the Building Trades Council at a proposed meeting called primarily to discuss a council suggestion that all agreements with various trades be signed at the same time

Mr. Wheaton announced that a new agreement with construction laborers was signed last month boosting wages to 90 cents and $1 an hour, same as on the Lower Mainland. Old rate was 86 and 90 cents. He explained it was felt that contractors would hire new and inexperienced help at 90 cents an hour and raise them to $1 after several months experience

REPORTS INTERVIEW

Reporting on an interview by a group of contractors with Labor Minister Wismer recently, W. Hamilton said Mr Wismer had assured them that no matter what is thrown out of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act the Government-supervised secret ballot will remain

Mr Wismer, he said favored legislation to stop small builders using money from one house to start on another until they have paid for materials in the first house. The minister was also sympathetic he added, to requests that a straight 2 per cent of wages be laid aside for holiday money for construction workers

The delegation also asked that employers be given the right to discuss union matters with their employees.

FINISHED IN YEAR

Mr Wheaton outlining work of the Canadian Construction Association annual meeting in Quebec in January, said that contractors anticipate low-rent housing projects for veterans will be finished in a year

"There is a very strong feeling across Canada that housing for the low-income group, which can't pay adequate rent, should become part of Government policy," he said

Contractors in Eastern Canada and the United States, he said, along with those here are worrying about "the threat of higher costs and affect of costs on future business volume."

Inter-exchange meeting with Vancouver contractors and builders will be held March 12. Annual meeting of the exchange is tentatively set for May 28

Speech From Throne

Few Speeches from the Throne in a Provincial Legislature ever say anything. Yesterday's was no exception in connection with the opening of the British Columbia Legislature. Its terms committed the Government to little, and to that little vaguely. There was, for instance, this reference to the municipalities, which disclose nothing:

"Careful study has been given to a number of provincial-municipal problems as well as to the rising cost of social security and other important public service. My Government is aware of the situation created thereby, and proposes to place before you measures designed to alleviate this condition."

A good deal more to the point, and to the facts as the municipalities have found them to be, was the return of the Public Accounts for the fiscal year ending March 31 last. These showed that British Columbia had collected the highest net revenue surplus in its history, $10,502,650: while its total revenue collections amounted to $56,817,944. In that, liquor sales totaled $47,961,515, with net profits of $14,834,291—also the highest in history.

On the expenditure side, the Province disclosed current expenditures of $46,315,293; exclusive of outlays from capital borrowings of $15,109,142, of which latter the chief items were approximately $5,000,000 from capital for roads, and advances exceeding $7,500,000 to the B.C. Power Commission. Expenditures from revenue surplus aggregated $4,652,490, of which the largest single items were $1,000,000 "to offset in part shortages in the provincial sinking found account," and a further $2,074,552 for roads.

Briefly put, British Columbia as at the end of March, 1947, was enjoying higher revenues than it had ever known. In the same period the Province gave the municipalities thirty-nine per cent of the cost of education, one-third of motor registration fees only, the 40-40-20 disbursement on social services, the 70 cents per diem hospital grant, and some building grants on a shared basis of cost.

The municipalities did not show any fat surpluses on that assistance. On the contrary, many of them went farther into the red. That is the condition that the Provincial Government have to meet, and it has become acute now with the rejection of school board estimates in British Columbia. Not fresh taxation in any form, but a far more even disbursement of its existing revenues would seem to be needed. The "measures designed to alleviate the situation" will be anticipated with interest, not alone by the municipalities but by the taxpayers as well.

Benefit Associations

The investigation by provincial authorities into the books of certain forms of mutual benefit associations seems to have been justified. To date six such associations have either been suspended by the Attorney-General's Department or else have voluntarily agreed to close until full coverage for the subscribing public can be restored. There has been no suggestion of malfeasance in this, only certain of the groups had assumed obligations beyond their immediate or visible means to carry out. Their operations were reported to the Government as unsound.

It can be assumed that the house-cleaning commenced will be carried through to its logical conclusion. What the public would like to know is how such associations were allowed to get into a state of indicated insolvency in the first place. What are the provincial checks on the situation, and were they uniformly carried out? It may be that amending legislation will be required at the present session to prevent the repetition of any such possibility in the future. The subscribers are nearly all among those who can ill afford to pay for any form of health or other protection unless it is forthcoming.

Undermining Security

The assertion that a senior United States atomic scientist has associated with alleged Soviet spies is symptomatic of the unease that pervades many official minds across the border. Congressional committees on un-American activities sometimes appear to lapse into witch-hunts. While it is a mistake to see a Red spy behind every pillar, that there is cause for some alarm over the infiltration of Soviet influence into official channels there can be little doubt. The Canadian espionage inquiry proved the attempted ambitions of Russian activities in this country: it would be folly to think they were not duplicated in the United States.

The most serious aspect of the Gouzenko disclosures was not that Russia sought Canadian and Allied secrets, but that highly intelligent individuals in Canada were prepared to betray their own country, to join in a conspiracy against the people they served, and to adopt a philosophy which in action has been demonstrated to be utterly regardless of human rights. The sinister turncoat manoeuvres of the Communist Party on this continent should have convinced all intelligent people of the complete insincerity of Communist pretences. Among the phenomena of history this attraction to a foreign power is the least understandable.

The seriousness of Communist influence among individuals holding posts of public trust explains the concern which moves Congressional committees. Never before has a dictator state succeeded in undermining the loyalties of groups of foreign nationals to the extent of the present Soviet regime. In all probability a potential "fifth column" exists [illegible] in strength anything this continent has known, which has as its object the sabotage of Canadian and American efforts in the event of another international emergency. That is what rouses uneasiness in official minds on this continent.

Plain Language

Mr. Abbott was not very helpful when he said the new income tax bill could not be written in terms plain to the average man in the street. Official language involves a precision people can do without in ordinary day-to-day communication, but that is no reason why a line of some sharpness could not be drawn to limit ambiguous expression.

It had been suggested that legal jargon should be avoided and the wording of the bill presented so that the average individual could be sure of understanding the contents. Apparently the drafters of the bill are opposed to material change in this respect, and Mr. Abbott agrees with them. It is true that the numerous exceptions and qualifications attached to income tax provisions make the measure complex and therefore necessitate a large variety of sections. Plain language, however, far from being open to various constructions, is what might clarify most statutes a good deal. It is the ornamental flow of words, so dear to the legal heart, that puts a great deal of legislation into an abstruse category.

If the aim is to "use language that is intelligible to the layman as well as to the courts," as the Finance Minister says, this would seem to reverse the emphasis. Statutes should be written so that the people to whom they apply will understand them. That should be a primary consideration. It is because this is not generally so that much confusion arises in the public mind. No legislation need be passed that can be understood only by the legal profession with the aid of a law library.

Obsessed With Details

If the executive heads at the City Hall cannot be entrusted to hire a stenographer to fill a vacancy without the sanction of the City Council there is something wrong with civic administration. Aldermen would have a mistaken idea of their position if minor details of this kind could not be handled without their personal supervision. The City Council should have more important things to concern them.

A glaring weakness of civic administration over a long period has been the council's obsession with matters which might with profit have been left to departmental heads. The agenda is often full of details which should not be listed at all. The result is the well-known preoccupation with trees instead of with the wood as a whole. The council should be mainly a policy-making body, leaving to the permanent heads of departments the execution of their orders with a proportionate amount of discretion. It should be entirely unnecessary for the council to dot the "i" and cross the "t" of every little detail.

It is also bad for efficiency when aldermen interfere too minutely with the routine operations of a department, as insistence on supervising the hiring of a stenographer would suggest is the case. Minor details, and some not so minor, can be left with confidence to responsible civic officials. Generally speaking they know more about the professional aspect of departmental matters than do aldermen, and they should be left alone to attend to them.

Seen in Passing

Hon Robert Henry Carson, Liberal M.L.A. for Kamloops, who was chosen Speaker of the Twenty-First Legislature yesterday at its opening sitting, has probably had more hours in the chair of House than any other member in it. For more than a decade he has acted as chairman of the House in Committee, and for almost as long as Deputy Speaker under successive incumbents.

The Future

A wonderer is man from his birth.
He was born in a ship
On the breast of the river of Time:
Brimming with wonder and joy
He spreads out his arms to the light,
Rivets his gaze on the banks of the stream.

As what he sees is, so have his thoughts been.
Whether he wakes
Where the snowy mountainous pass,
Echoing the screams of the eagles,
Hems in its gorges the bed
Of the new-born clear-flowing stream:

Whether he first sees light
Where the river in gleaming rings
Sluggishly winds through the plain;
Whether in sound of the swallowing sea—
As is the world on the banks,
So is the mind of man . . .

Haply the river of Time—
As it grows, as the towns on its marge
Fling their wavering lights
On a wider, statelier stream—
May acquire, if not the calm
Of its early mountainous shore
Yet a solemn peace of its own . . .

"HIGHEST" MOUNTAIN

A half-overheard radio item said something the other night about an expedition being planned to Western China by Reynolds the pen manufacturer to discover the "highest" mountain in the world. Presumably the idea is to find out if the pen that writes under water works equally well without oxygen.

In a way, it will be a pity if the drama of Everest is lessened by discovery of a higher mountain than the famous Himalayan peak. For a hundred years this "summit of the world" has stood in men's minds as "the" highest, and it has evoked a procession of selfless endeavour and human courage without parallel.

Yet there may be other peaks reaching even further into the sky. The war brought a new perspective to bear on mountain ranges—from aircraft. Set back in the remote border-country of Tibet and Western China there is believed to be a great mountain range, and for years there had been reports of a peak, called Amne Machen, that might outrank even mighty Everest.

During the war stories were brought back by airmen flying over the India-China "hump" of being blown off their course when around an altitude of 29,000 feet, and of near escape from crashing into a mountain rising still higher into the mists. It is, perhaps, this mystery-mountain which Mr. Reynolds seeks.

STORY OF EVEREST

The story of Everest, as James Ramsey Ullman relates in his entrancing "Kingdom of Adventure: Everest," began in 1852 when a Bengali computer rushed into the office of the Surveyor-General of India with a breathless: "Sir, I have discovered the highest mountain in the world."

He proved to be correct. Three years before a trigonometrical survey had been made of the peaks of Nepal from the plains of India. Observations had been recorded of a mass of towering Himalayan giants, and it was when working leisurely over accumulated data that the Bengali computer made his startling discovery.

An immediate check verified the Bengali's claim, and the peak was measured at the mean height of 29,002 feet and named after Sir George Everest, the Surveyor-General who had started the survey. Later computations elevated the mountain to 29,141 feet, the figure now generally accepted.

MIGHTY BACKBONE

There are other peaks nearly as high, all in the Himalayas. It is this mighty backbone of the Asiatic world that thrusts knuckles into the void higher than any other known range in the world. Besides Everest there is K2, second in height at 28,250 feet and the highest mountain in the British Empire, for it lies in the northwest reaches of the Great Himalayas within the boundary of India. Everest although further south, is in Nepal, just across the border from Tibet, through which it must be approached.

Then there is Kinchinjunga, another monarch of rock and snow, thrusting 28,146 feet upwards; Nanga Parbat, 26,629 feet, and Nanda Nevi, which is the highest mountain top that has been climbed so far, although mountaineers have ascended to greater altitude on other peaks. Nanda Nevi is 25,660 feet at its pinnacle.

No other known mountain range can compare with the Himalayas. The Andes in South America has the lofty summit of Aconcague, 22,976 feet, the highest point on earth outside Central Asia. In the Himalayas there are hundreds of peaks higher than this.

And yet in itself Mount Everest is not an extremely high mountain if measured from bottom to top. Mount McKinley in Alaska, for one, is higher by such reckoning, being 20,000 feet from base to summit. Everest lies atop a 17,000-foot Tibetan plateau, from which it pushes its massive bulk to the ceiling of the world. Its climbing face rises only some 12,000 feet in vertical height. But what a climb!

UNATTAINABLE GOAL?

Not in sheer climbing difficulty. Other Himalayan peaks are more hazardous from a purely technical standpoint, but they do not reach so far into the heavens.

It is up there among the mists that shroud Everest that nature has foiled the attempts of man to reach this, to date, unattainable goal, unless it be that Mallory and Irvine did after all reach the top in that last heroic attempt in June, 1924 While a comrade watched 2,000 feet away they crept painfully along the last ridge only 800 feet below the 29,141-foot summit of the world, and then disappeared from view.

This, although the closest to success, was only one of seven expeditions that have sought to conquer Everest, by virtue of efforts of mind and will over physical hardships than cannot be imagined by those who have no experience of such ventures. Men have braved tremendous risks while drawn by an inward urge to reach the top of Everest, and without, be it noted, the stimulus of publicity or of financial award.

It would be a pity that the story of Everest should end in anti-climax. I hope Mr. Reynolds is unsuccessful.

New Penal Reforms for Great Britain

By R. R. JONES

LONDON. — The new Criminal Justice Bill gives Britain the lead over all other countries in putting a modern and human attitude into practice in this field. It is known that the present-day execution of sentences differs from past systems in a new basic attitude towards the individuality of the accused. A severe and frightening system of justice which tried to break the spirit of criminals has been replaced gradually by a new system in which the assessment and determination of a sentence takes into account the personality of the accused, his previous history and the motives for his crime. The aim today is to readjust the prisoner into normal society.

This attitude has conditioned the practice of Britain's courts more and more during recent decades. As far as existing legislation permitted, magistrates have made extensive use of their opportunities of either passing no sentence at all or placing the accused under the supervision of a probation officer. Although penal servitude and hard labor still exist officially, in practice the prisons had ceased gradually to make any distinction between convicts and normal prisoners. Corporal punishment was still permissible in exceptional cases according to the letter of the law, though in practice it was rare for a court to award it.

The present judicial reforms aim at putting an end to the discrepancies between the modern attitude and many superannuated legal clauses. Penal servitude, hard labor and judicial corporal punishment are to be abolished immediately. The "ticket of leave" will be abolished with it, a system which obliged convicts, released before their time, to report to the police at regular intervals. Instead of this multiplicity of punishments, there will be one single form of prison sentence, its severity being determined by length alone. For this reason the previous practice of courts of separating prisoners into divisions will also be abolished.

It will be left to prison officers to make divisions among prisoners; not on the basis of their behavior, but on the basis of their personalities. The aim of this sort of division is to separate prisoners who are thought capable of rehabilitation from habitual criminals.

A large part of the new draft law is devoted to the care of youthful first offenders against the law.

Studies made by Britain's criminologists have shown that habitual criminals begin their careers after a first sentence at an early age. If these young people had been saved from prison then, their whole lives might have run otherwise.

The penal reforms set out from these principles to restrict the passing of prison sentences on young people as far as possible. No person less than 17 years of age may be sentenced to prison by a Summary Court. For Assizes and Quarter Sessions the age limit is set at 15. But as long as the accused is less than 21 years of age a prison sentence may not be passed by any court unless it is convinced that no other punishment will serve the purpose. This means that apart from exceptionally difficult cases, no person below 21 years of age will henceforth ever see the inside of a prison.

The scope of the new bill becomes clear from the following figures quoted by Viscount Templewood: Out of every 100 persons sentenced for burglary in 1945, no less than 36 were below 14 years of age, 25 were between the ages of 14 and 17, and 16 were between 18 and 21. Only 21 per cent of the total were over 21 years of age. An even more important fact is that the number of young persons tried for such offences has more than doubled since before the World War.

These penal reforms aim at saving young people from prison, but not from punishment. Instead of sending a youthful delinquent to prison, he will be sentenced to such punishment as best suits his nature. In minor cases he may be dismissed, or placed under the supervision of a probation officer for at least a year. He may be placed on probation and sent to a home, but he will be able to come and go freely from the latter to follow his occupation.

Another possibility is to send the offender to an approved school or for Borstal training. The new bill reduces the age limit for Borstal training from 23 to 21 years, and also demands the extension and reform of these institutions. It also creates a new form of punishment for youthful offenders, by sending them to a detention centre for three, or at most, six months instead of passing short prison sentences upon them. The constant aim is to avoid bringing young people into contact with prison life, so that their later life is not stained with the mark of prison.

While this legislation shows such wise clemency in the treatment of young offenders, it also seeks to protect society from habitual criminals by new far-reaching measures. Every prisoner who has been twice sentenced for a serious offence, after his discharge, will have to remain in touch with a society approved by the Home Office and keep its officers regularly informed of his domicile. Persistent offenders can be sentenced to preventive detention for five to 14 years, if they are over 30 years of age and have served three previous sentences. In other cases, offenders over the age of 21 may be sentenced to corrective training for two to four years.

In proposing milder punishment for young offenders on the one hand, and on the other, taking firm preventive measures in an attempt to protect society from habitual criminals, Britain's new Penal Code forms a logical whole which aims at diminishing the incidence of crime all over the country. The reforms are based on the final conclusions of the Royal Commission of 1931 and the Draft Bill of 1938 drawn up by Viscount Templewood.—United Kingdom Information Bureau.

FUNCTION POSTPONED

Sir,—On behalf of St. Joseph's Hospital Junior Auxiliary, I wish to thank all the generous people of Victoria who have contributed to the original charity auction which was to have been held on Tuesday, March 2.

Owing to the fact that a larger organization than ourselves has decided to hold a charity auction on that same date, we feel that we cannot do justice to the articles given us by local business firms and private citizens. Thus, after two weeks of advertising, we are forced to postpone this affair, the total proceeds of which were to be in aid of the new wing of St. Joseph's Hospital; but we wish to assure our kind friends that their contributions will be stored until a suitable date in the near future.

It is unfortunate that there is no clearing house for functions of this nature, so that the first organization advertising would hold the date advertised against an identical function at least.

Again, our sincere thanks to all who have been so kind to us, and our best wishes to the Lions Club for a successful auction.

(MRS.) C. A. MACGILLIVRAY,
Convener, Charity Auction.

LOCAL COUNCIL THANKED

Sir,—The following letter dated January 18, 1948, from Elsa Dunbar, head of the Empire and foreign department, Women's Voluntary Services, 41 Tothill Street, London, England, was received by me, as president of Victoria Local Council of Women:

"Dear Mrs. Parsons,—"We are so grateful to you for the simply wonderful quantity of clothing you sent us recently and which has just arrived in beautiful condition. It is quite impossible to thank you adequately for your generosity but if you could see the joy which your gift has brought both to ourselves and to the ultimate recipients of the clothes. I am sure you would feel with us that the work is terribly worth while.

"Unfortunately the terms of our free import licence prohibit us from accepting gifts of clothing from overseas destined for any particular address here. Much as we regret it in this particular case, we are bound by the rules.

"Your present arrived to cheer us at a particularly difficult time. As you have no doubt heard, our rations of clothing, food and fuel are now shorter than ever before. The present six monthly ration of clothing coupons does not permit us to go out and buy a Winter coat and still have anything left over for underclothing, shoes or stockings, but we are much cheered so far by the mild Winter, and we feel that if we can weather the next two or three months we shall have put the worst behind us and shall be able to begin to make real progress.

"This letter brings you New Year's greetings and many heartfelt thanks to you and all the members of the Council of Women.

(Signed) ELSA DUNBAR."
Mrs. BERTHA PARSONS,

LIGHTS IGNORED

WINNIPEG, March 2 (CP). — Inspector Robert Hill of the city police traffic division said today traffic lights put in operation at a downtown intersection exclusively for pedestrians have been ignored almost completely. The lights, at the corners of Portage Avenue and Donald Street, flash "walk-wait" signs in unison with the lights governing vehicular traffic.

Observation Car

It would be nice to hear radio station announcers say: "And now we interrupt the commercial to bring you some music" . . . A merchant in an Up-Island community who complained about the civic government was told by a Mainland salesman: "Poor mayors and aldermen are selected by good citizens who did not vote" . . . A heart of oak is entirely different from a head of oak . . . Peace seems to be as hard on some nations as war was . . . A statistician estimated that Canadians pay more for all types of government than for food. Cannibal tribes used to solve such matters by eating the tax collectors . . . A hint has been dropped that when large-scale television comes to Canada, the $2.50 radio license fee will not cover the cost. The public will be asked to dig deeper for the continued privilege of getting next to nothing . . . Some babies laugh and smile all the time while others appear quite serious. Perhaps those in the latter class have an inkling of the large debts being piled up for them . . . A Chicago newspaper contained an article on why students fail in high school examinations. Quite a number fail because the marks they need are not easy marks . . . Bill, the Broad Street barber, was discovered at lunchtime poring over several long columns of figures in the back of the shop. "What do you know about bookkeeping?" Barber Ben inquired. "Several things that you will never learn. I mastered the triple entry system when I was a youth," Bill retorted. "What on earth is the triple entry?" Ben asked. "It means a statement for a working partner showing the true profits, another for the silent partner showing very little profit, and a third for the income tax collector showing the business was operated at a loss," Bill explained.

Disclosure Said Serious Aspect

OTTAWA, March 2 (CP). — Disclosure of "confidential information" to a newspaper was branded today as "the most serious aspect" of recent developments in the twice-appealed appointment of a Cabinet minister's secretary to a high Indian affairs post.

He was one of four witnesses called as the committee examined the controversial appointment of W. J. F. (Ford) Pratt, private secretary to Resources Minister Glen, as general executive assistant in the Resources Department's Indian Branch.

Dr. Keenleyside said he accepts "full and exclusive" responsibility for Mr Pratt's appointment. He twice urged the appointment for these reasons: Mr. Pratt had long experience in Indian matters, knew personally many of the Indian agents, had visited reserves and assisted Mr. Glen in dealing with Indian complaints.

Pure clay is white and results in white products such as chinaware. But common clay, used for bricks, tile and earthenware, contains iron. When such products are baked the iron forms a red oxide. The more iron in the clay the deeper red is the brick or other product made from it.

According to Culbertson

In today's deal South might well have been satisfied with a small slam contract and in that way saved himself a lot of grief. However, since his ambition had carried him to the grand-slam level, he should have shown more astuteness in the play.

West opened the heart queen, as what appeared to be the least dangerous of all leads. Dummy's ace was played and trumps were drawn in two rounds. Then, after studying the hands with a certain amount of dissatisfaction, South said: "Well, what's the use of fooling around? I can play this hand all night and I'll still have to guess for the queen of clubs. They tell me the queen lies over the jack. Okay, I'll finesse against East up to my own ace-ten," and thereupon he threw his hand upon the table.

West heaved a sigh of considerable relief as he claimed the setting trick with his club queen.

It might have paid South to "fool around" a little with this hand instead of depending on a silly superstition. The "queen lies over the jack" idea has gained some credence in recent years, but its true value has yet to be demonstrated.

South should have played for whatever information he could get—and he would have collected plenty. After winning with the heart ace he should have ruffed a heart high, gone back to dummy with a trump, and ruffed another heart. Now he would know that East started with six hearts and two spades. It would be no feat at all to find out by leading and ruffing diamonds that East also had held three at that suit—which would leave him with exactly two clubs. Then, with five clubs located in West's hand as against two in East's, the winning club finesse would not be difficult to defeat.

Electric Shop Fire—At 3:10 yesterday afternoon, fire broke out on what is called or known as the electric shop at shaft "L" of the Western Fuel Co., where a dynamo is supposed to have short-circuited. Fortunately the blaze was quickly brought under control, and apart from the electric machinery, but little damage was done.

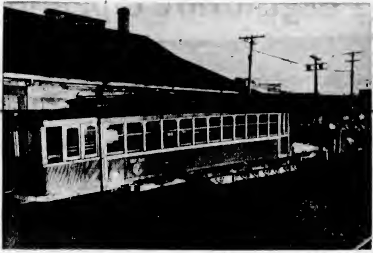
Five Dollars—From and after this date a reward of five dollars will be paid for the destruction of wolf and panthers instead of ten dollars as heretofore. This means that the wolf and panther population must be thinning out. This will be good news to the farmers farther up the Island.

Street Car on Up-Island "Run"



ABANDONED B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. street cars are still in demand for various and sundry uses. Latest one to be saved from the scrap heap was this Oak Bay No. 1 vehicle which has been purchased by S. Tighe, 122 Burnside Road. Street car is pictured above on large truck trailer as it started on its haul to Cowichan Monday. "Hull" of car, it is reported, will be reconverted into coffee and sandwich stand.

B.C. Electric purchasing department has already sold number of old street cars to date and is preparing to scrap those not purchased.

Mill Employee Hurt in Mishap

Fred Harkness, 36, 2943 Bridge Street, was injured shortly before noon yesterday in an accident at the James Bay Lumber Company's mill on Pleasant Street.

Taken to the Royal Jubilee Hospital in the police ambulance he was reported to have sustained a fractured right arm and a broken rib on the right side.

A. Y. Johnstone, managing director of the mill, said that Mr. Harkness was engaged in applying belt dressing to a belt on one of the machines when the accident occurred. No one witnessed the mishap.

Harkness has been an employee of the James Bay Lumber Company for three years.

Decrease Seen In Estimates

Estimated expenditure for parks and playgrounds in Esquimalt for the current year is $1,216 less than 1947, it was reported at the Esquimalt Council meeting last night.

Councillor Alex Spiers said $5,000 would be required to carry out the 1948 program. Last year, he said, $6,216 was needed.

Playground wages were estimated at $350, a $200 decrease compared with last year, and playground purchases were estimated at $175, about $400 less than 1947.

Bullen's Park and football grounds wages were estimated to cost in 1948 $750, compared with $524 last year, while purchases will be $200, compared with $1,046 in 1947.

...Oddities...

PATERSON, N.J., March 2 (AP).—"You're in here so much that you must like me," observed Judge Milton Schamach cheerfully to a defendant today.

"But I don't," replied the defendant, who has stood in the same court many times before.

"You don't," demanded the judge.

The defendant thought a minute. "On the street," he replied diplomatically, "I would—but not in here."

WINNIPEG, March 2 (CP).—Does the little woman have trouble in parking the car?

That's the conclusion that might be drawn from an address yesterday to the Appraisal Institute of Canada by Robert H. Armstrong of New York. Mr. Armstrong said many new shopping centres in the United States are springing up in open country seven or eight miles from the city centre.

And he gave this as the reason. Car drivers, particularly women, prefer to drive for 20 minutes to the edge of town to shop and be assured of easy parking than drive for ten minutes to the centre of town and have to hunt for a parking place.

Fido Slated For Nights By the Fire

Night life of the canine population of Saanich has been seriously curtailed by an amendment to the "Dog Licence and Regulation By-Law, 1940" passed by the municipal council last night.

Under the new ruling "no owner of a dog shall allow such dog to be at large within the municipality at any time between sunrise and sunset unless accompanied by, or within reasonable call of the owner or some person having charge or care of the dog."

The by-law is aimed at reducing or eliminating the heavy toll taken among sheep flocks of the district by night-roaming dogs.

Last night, as usual at recent council meetings, compensation was ordered paid for a number of sheep.

Liberals Seek Revival of Fair

Victoria, Esquimalt and Oak Bay Liberal Associations Monday night passed a resolution urging re-institutions of an annual fair to start this year if possible.

Members endorsed the resolution after hearing G. I. Edgelow, publisher, relate the benefits to be derived from staging of the annual fair.

Mr. Edgelow said a fair is the show window of the district and rural and urban populations reap great benefits from such an event.

"In essence a fair is a gesture of friendship of which all the community may avail themselves. By all means let us have always an annual fair," concluded Mr. Edgelow.

Russia Agrees With Proposal

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., March 2 (CP). — Russian acceptance of a United States proposal that the five great powers try to solve the Palestine problem was given the United Nations Security Council today in a tense session. Britain declared that she could not participate in the proposed big-power consultations.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Russia's deputy foreign minister, told the 11-power council that his country opposed creating a formal committee of Great Britain, the United States, Russia, France and China for consultations with Arabs and Jews. But he said the big five "certainly" should consult among themselves. Formation of a committee as such would only drag out a settlement.

The United States earlier, through Warren R. Austin, its chief U.N. delegate reiterated its proposal made a week ago at the opening of the crucial Palestine debate that a big five committee seek to solve the problem.

ROCHESTER, Mass., March 2 (AP)—Police Chief William Jenkins won't have to worry about balancing his budget.

He has none.

The chief asked for $1,500 for running his department. The town meeting cut that to $300, then to $100 and then voted it out altogether.

Saanich Sends Back Estimates Of Schools as Being Too High

Saanich Council last night ordered ordinary estimates of the Greater Victoria School Board and those of the Saanich rural board returned to those bodies for reduction.

Reason given for this action was the "inability of Saanich to pay" the increased education costs.

John B. Tribe, municipal clerk, [illegible] estimates from the two boards totaled $247,590, an increase of 41.4 per cent over the preceding year. Last year's estimates for the two school districts totaled approximately $175,000.

Should the two boards refuse, or find it impossible, to reduce their estimates, the whole question of education costs will be placed before an arbitration board, Reeve E. C. Warren said.

He contended that the principal [illegible] costs is wrong. At least 50 cents of each tax dollar goes to education costs, which should not be borne solely by the land owner, he said.

Pointing out that municipalities have the right to tax only land, he called for assistance from the Provincial Government, which, he said, with its far wider scope in taxation, could more equitably distribute the load.

Island Firms Get Contracts

Two contracts totaling $15,500 have been awarded a Victoria firm and one for $22,543 to a Duncan contractor for repairs, alterations and additions to Dominion Government property.

The Department of Public Works at Ottawa, in announcing contracts for almost $2,000,000 across Canada, said Garner Bros. Ltd. at Duncan have been given the contract for alterations and additions to the public building there.

Pacific Pile Driving Co. Ltd., Victoria, was awarded a $7,975 contract for wharf repairs at Shoal Bay up the coast and a $7,515 contract for reconstruction of the wharf at Degnen's Bay.

37,000 D.P.'S IN BRITAIN

LONDON (CP).—More than 37,000 of the world's displaced persons have found a home in Britain—the largest group to settle in any country. Twenty-eight thousand are working in agriculture, coal mining and iron and steel industries, and 6,000 women have been placed in textile firms, hospitals and hostels.

Howe Says Cities Boosting Taxes

OTTAWA, March 2 (CP).—Trade Minister Howe said today in the Commons some cities, including Vancouver, are increasing the taxes on tenants living on wartime housing erected on municipal property.

Replying to Angus MacInnis (C.C.F., Vancouver East) and Percy Black (P.C., Cumberland), who understood the Government was increasing the rentals, Mr. Howe explained that the houses had been built under an agreement with the municipalities which "included a fixed tax to extend for one year after the war."

Many natives of Brazil drink about 10 to 30 cups of coffee a day.

Firestone ORIGINATOR OF THE BALLOON TIRE

Introduces The NEW Super-Balloon

FEATURED BY LEADING CAR MANUFACTURERS ON THEIR 1948 MODELS

HERE'S the newest in tires to match the newest in cars!

The new Firestone Super-Balloon is a revolutionary new KIND of tire that gives you a revolutionary new KIND of ride. Yet, the idea back of it was conceived by Firestone a quarter of a century ago.

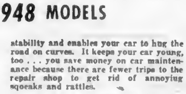
Back in 1922, Firestone developed the FIRST balloon tire, which set completely new and different standards of safety, comfort and long mileage. Now, Firestone gives the car owners of Canada a new sensation in riding and driving luxury with the new Firestone Super-Balloon.

PROVED QUALITY and PERFORMANCE

Exhaustive tests prove that you can drive more miles at higher speeds with less fatigue. You can stop more safely on any road in any weather . . . even with sudden stops on rough roads there is no chatter or wheel-bounce. This remarkable new tire absorbs the shock of hitting rocks, bumps and other objects instead of transmitting the shock to you and your car. It provides amazingly greater stability and enables your car to hug the road on curves. It keeps your car young, too . . . you save money on car maintenance because there are fewer trips to the repair shop to get rid of annoying squeaks and rattles.

MORE RIDING COMFORT and SAFETY

The new Firestone Super-Balloon is truly the tire of tomorrow, a wholly new sensation in restful riding, in non-skid safety, in blowout protection and in longer, more comfortable mileage. Many of the most famous automobile manufacturers will feature it on their 1948 models. And soon you will be able to put new Firestone Super-Balloons on your present car. Watch for them at your nearby Firestone Dealer or Store.



Cross sections show how more air volume and lower pressure permit greater flexing action when Firestone Super-Balloons go over bumps and rough roads.

LESS FATIGUE . . . LONGER COMFORTABLE MILEAGE
This tire takes the punishment instead of you and your car. It absorbs road shocks instead of transmitting them because the tire body is larger and holds more air at lower pressure. You can drive farther, faster and longer without becoming tired. Reduced vibration results in the quietest, smoothest, easiest ride you have ever experienced.

SAFER STOPPING . . . GREATER BLOWOUT PROTECTION
The combination of new Skid-Resisters molded into the tread and more area in contact with the road provide sure-footed stops and sure-footed starts on any road in any weather. The Safti-Sured Gum-Dipped cord body and cooler-running resulting from the larger volume of air at lower pressure provide the greatest protection against blowouts ever built into a tire.

KEEPS YOUR CAR YOUNG . . . SAVES YOU MONEY
By preventing road shocks from reaching your car, the Firestone Super-Balloon helps to keep the body, chassis and running gear [illegible]. Many of the irritating and annoying squeaks, rattles and vibrations [illegible] are eliminated. There is less wear on the car, fewer repair bills, longer car life.

Performance of 'Mikado' Has Color, Amusement

A spontaneous outburst of applause greeted the opening curtain of the Victoria Gilbert and Sullivan Society's presentation of the ever-popular "Mikado" last night at the Royal Theatre. The colorful and effective set for the production is the work of Mrs. Connie Segrist.

Just a few days short of 63 years since its first production at the Savoy Theatre in London, this perennial favorite among operettas is as fresh and amusing as it was then. Considerable amusement was shown at the pomposity of "Pooh-Bah," played by Ivan Howell, who strutted in a most lordly fashion. Jim Mead-Robins was "Ko-Ko" the Lord High Executioner of Titipu, and in the plaintive "Willow, Tit-Willow" scene with the determined and not-so-young "Katisha" did some very good miming. Marie Beale as "Katisha" had a good sense of comedy, particularly in her later scenes.

Allen White was the wandering minstrel "Nanki-Poo." He has a pleasing tenor voice, and in his scenes with "Yum-Yum" and in the sextette, his pacing was good.

Dorothy Kenward was a dainty "Yum Yum," with a clear, fresh young voice, and an ability to move well on the stage. She used her fan well, and has a very pleasing enthusiasm. June Milburn was the faithful "Pitti Sing," and Helena Williams was the third "Little Maid From School," known as "Peep Bo." Their voices blended well and their trio was one of the favorites of the [illegible]

Don Beale was the lordly "Pish Tush" and the "Mikado" himself was John Logie. The latter caused audible laughter with his patter songs. His scene with "Ko-Ko" when methods of execution are under discussion was good, and the grouping for this scene was effective.

The costumes were colorful and gay, the mens' voices carrying well, and the girls choruses sung with enthusiasm and evident enjoyment.

Presented under the auspices of the Gyro Club of Victoria the production had Major W. Taylor as stage director, with Major G. E. Bower as musical director. The entire company numbers 80.

The performance is being repeated tonight and Thursday night.

Entry to Canada Said Exile's Wish

ESTORIL, Portugal, March 2 (CP)—Ex-King Carol of Romania may soon apply for an entry permit to enter Canada, say the gossips of this Portuguese seaside resort where three throneless monarchs wile away their exile.

Members of Carol's household have been non-committal about the report, indicating he had not yet made up his mind to seek a change of residence. Whether Canada would welcome him is another matter.

Carol is insistent that he and his fellow-exiles retain royal status. At a recent press conference concerning the abdication of his son, Michael, a reporter asked his aide, Marshall Urdarianu, which of the two now would be considered the "ex-king."

"There is no such a thing as an ex-king," said Urdarianu tartly. "If one is born a king, one remains a king. There are only kings without thrones."

Creating a wardrobe for a star as beautiful as Hedy Lamarr is a designer's dream—and one that came true for the current "Cinderella" girl among Hollywood couturieres. Also in the film are Dennis O'Keefe, and John Loder.

Little Stories for Bedtime

PETER RABBIT TRIES TO VISIT PADDY THE BEAVER

"To win a friend and keep a friend,
Why, one must friendly be
Forget a friend, you lose a friend,
I think you'll all agree."

"I ought to have thought of that before. My, my, my. How heedless and thoughtless I am. Here the Winter is nearly over and I haven't once been to call on Paddy the Beaver. Shame on you, Peter Rab[illegible]

Peter said all this to himself as he sat just outside the edge of the Old Briar Patch looking this way and that to make sure that no danger was near. The meadows glistened white and beautiful, for they no longer were green, but covered with snow. Far, far away, near one edge of the meadows, was a tall elm tree, and in the top of it sat Roughleg the Hawk. Peter knew that he was there, because he had seen him go there.

"I've nothing to fear from him because he is too far away," thought Peter. "There is nothing to fear from Reddy and Granny Fox, because just at break of day I saw them on their way home from an all-night hunt, and they were so tired they could hardly walk. There is nothing to fear from Hooty the Owl, because he is fast asleep by this time. Old Man Coyote has just gone up to the Old Pasture, so there is nothing to fear from him. And so I believe I will just run up in the Green Forest and call on Paddy the Beaver." Once more Peter looked this way and that way to make sure that the way was clear, then off he started—lipperty lipperty, lip—as fast as his long legs could take him.

Farther and farther into the Green Forest scampered Peter Rabbit. It was a long way to the pond made by Paddy the Beaver. Peter wondered if he would find things much changed and what he would find Paddy doing. He didn't for a single minute doubt that he would find Paddy doing something. Somehow he couldn't think of Paddy as doing nothing. But when he reached the edge of the pond made by Paddy the Beaver not a sign of life was to be seen or heard. You see, it was a very lonely place deep in the Green Forest which Paddy had chosen, for he never is lonely himself. Peter stopped on the very edge of the pond. It was smooth and hard and Peter knew that it was very, very slippery. Everything around was white with snow, and rising out of [illegible] Peter knew this to be the house of Paddy the Beaver.

At first Peter was very much puzzled, very much puzzled, indeed. Why wasn't the pond covered with snow when everything else was? There it was, smooth and hard and slippery, with not a flake of snow on it. Could it be that Paddy the Beaver had found a way to clear the snow off? He did such wonderful things that Peter would not have been in the least surprised to have found him clearing his pond of snow. But Paddy wasn't to be seen, and there wasn't any sign that he was or had been anywhere about. Then Peter remembered.

"Oh, you stupid!" said he, talking aloud to himself. "Of course, Paddy didn't clear the snow from his pond, because there hasn't been any for him to clear away. It snowed before the pond froze over. My, how clear the ice is! I can see right to the bottom of the pond. I wonder if I can get over to Paddy's house without falling down and bumping my nose? Here goes!"

With that Peter made a long jump out on the smooth, slippery ice, slid a little way, slipped, tried to catch his balance, slipped again, and then suddenly his feet flew quite from under him, and down he went on the back of his head.

"Oh! Ouch!" cried Peter, and because the bump hurt so he wanted to dance. Just as if that would help it. But the very minute he [illegible] from under him again, just as if they didn't belong to him, and this time Peter bumped his nose. "Oh! Ouch!" cried Peter and tried to hold the tears by winking very rapidly. "I've heard my mother say that there are times when the slowest way is the quickest, and I guess this is one of them." With that Peter began to crawl toward Paddy's house.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, March 2 (CP).—Stocks continued to drift without direction and within narrow price range in quiet trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Caution prevailed, and most of the listings were neglected. Industrials were moderately improved while golds were easier. Steels showed some firmness and foods were easier among the industrials, but most of the groups about balanced small gains and losses. Western oils were down on a majority of narrow losses.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, March 2 (CP).—Oats and barley moved on a narrow range on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today on small shipper buying. There was some local interest and some selling for American accounts which were pretty well absorbed when the American market eased. Light offerings in May rye futures were taken by seaboard accounts. Rye rose 6c at one time, but eased towards the close on commission house selling.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, March 2 (AP).—Grain futures ranged lower in the Board of Trade session today. The decline in corn was the sharpest. Selling by commission houses uncovered stop loss orders, and the deferred deliveries scored heaviest losses. Wheat followed corn downward. More moisture over the Winter wheat sector, and lack of indications of Government buying were factors in the decline. Oats were stubborn.

Dominion Bonds Firm

MONTREAL, March 2 (CP).—Dominion long and short-term issues were firmer and in good demand in active trading on the bond market today. Provincials remained unsettled and no changes took place in light trading. Dealings were a shade more active in industrials and prices were slightly easier due to short interest being covered. Bids were about one point lower. Utilities marked time throughout the day.

BUT ACT NOW

Scrambling to make a Will when danger threatens is probably better than not making one at all but the preparation of such an important document should not be left to the confusion of a last minute rush.

Making a Will is something that can easily be attended to before emergencies arise. This duty should not be neglected. The logic and advantages of appointing a Corporate Executor and Trustee are obvious and well recognized.

All that is needed to get the job done, and done well, is to ask us to help you plan your Will, which we shall gladly do without charge. You can then have it drawn in proper legal form, naming The Royal Trust Company your Executor and Trustee, execute the Will and file it with us for safekeeping.

Antigonish Due Today With Naval Cadets

—Marine News

The Royal Canadian Navy's frigate Antigonish is due at Esquimalt at 2:30 this afternoon with 67 naval cadets aboard.

Antigonish left Esquimalt March 8 with the cruiser Ontario and the destroyer Crescent on the fleet's Spring cruise to southern waters. Ontario carried 40 navy cadets while Crescent carried 27.

The cadets traveled on board the larger vessels until the ships reached Magdalena Bay, off the coast of Mexico, where they transferred to the frigate and started the return journey. During the time spent at sea the cadets were given practical instruction in many phases of naval operations and seamanship.

Thirty-four R.C.A.F. cadets returned to Victoria yesterday by air from Trenton, Ont., where they have spent the past month undergoing intense training in dual flying instruction in Harvard aircraft, and general airmanship.

Municipalities Will Maintain Sales Tax Bid

Efforts to persuade the Provincial Government to introduce a sales tax and take over the entire cost of education to relieve financially burdened municipalities in British Columbia will be continued, it was stated yesterday by Mayor William Mott of New Westminster, president of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities.

He made the statement after a short talk yesterday morning with Mayor Percy E. George, who is vice-president of the union.

Mayor George said the discussion centred around the next move which should be taken by the union to bring to the attention of the Government the serious plight of municipalities.

Rumored decision of the Government to impose the tax but turn over to municipalities only one-third of the revenue would not provide a satisfactory solution, Mayor George said. The tax was being recommended by the union specifically to meet the cost of education, he pointed out, and the union was not opposed to it being imposed with the province taking the major share of the returns.

NOTE INCREASE IN SALES

OTTAWA, March 2 (CP).—Dollar volume of department store sales in Canada was 17 per cent higher in January than in the corresponding month last year, the Bureau of Statistics reported today. The Bureau's unadjusted index of sales on the basis 1935-39 equals 100 stood at 182.3, compared with 165.1 a year ago.

Plans Address

James Thacker, first officer on board the cableship Restorer, will be guest speaker at an open meeting of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club tomorrow night at 8.30. His talk will deal with cable-laying operations of the vessel during war years with the United States Pacific fleet.

Mr. Thacker has been actively associated with the local yachting organizations for the past 20 years.

Liner Docks

The Swedish American Line's new motorliner Stockholm docked at New York yesterday after making a smooth sailing from Sweden in six days. Her average speed was 18 knots. Her maiden voyage passenger list numbered 271.

Among passengers was Count Olaf of Rosenberg, who until his marriage to the daughter of a Danish civil service employee last February, was Prince Olaf of Denmark—third in succession to the throne.

Sidney Ferry

Capt. Alex M. Peabody, president of the Puget Sound Navigation Company, said yesterday in Seattle that international ferry services from Anacortes to Sidney will start April 1 as previously announced.

The service will include stops at San Juan Island points for foreign traffic only. The international service is not subject to state rate controls.

Visits Base

Visiting facilities and personnel at Esquimalt naval base yesterday was Commodore G. R. Miles, O.B.E., R.C.N., Chief of Naval Personnel, Ottawa. His tour here also included a visit to H.M.C.S. Royal Roads.

Commodore Miles will return to Ottawa today. He was awarded the O.B.E. for bringing the Canadian destroyer Saguenay back to port after she had been torpedoed.

Yachtsmen Back in City

A number of Royal Victoria Yacht Club members have returned to Victoria after a week-end visit to Seattle where plans were discussed for the annual regatta of the Pacific International Yachting Association, to be held here July 1 to July 4.

The delegation included Andrew Wright, commodore of the local yachting organization; Max Young, rear commodore, Alfred Evans, fleet captain, Ned Ashe, Hunter Vogel, E. Liersch and F. McLeod.

While in Seattle the club members visited the Seattle boat show—one of the most outstanding affairs of its kind held in the Pacific Northwest. Approximately 50,000 persons paid to see the event.

PATTERN FOR PROGRESS

"Here in America we have developed an economic system more free and more dynamic than any other in the world."

That statement was made by the A. F. of L. publication, Labor's Monthly Survey, and it pretty well sums up the opinions of the more thoughtful elements of organized labor.

The article goes on to say: "Because we believe in the worth of each individual, and in giving to each the greatest opportunity to use his ability and initiative, our millions of businessmen and workers have been free to plan and invent, to put their minds and muscles into the work of production, and have developed an industrial teamwork which gives us the highest living standards in the world.

"Europe looks to us, not only for material help, but also for guidance to the way of economic freedom and productivity."

Looking behind the reasons for the enviable position our system has produced on this continent, we generally find the perfect balance in good management and sound labor policies. The one complements the other to the mutual advantage of both.

As labor grows in stature with experience, it is finding out that the day for thoughtless demands has passed, and that it is now a responsible partner in the economy of the nation.

It is inevitable that there will come a day of stress on all business—when the dollar will buy less than it does today. That will be the final test of how well management and labor can get along together in solving big problems common to both.

Wismer Names Inquiry Board To Seek Coal Mine Settlement

A new move was made by Provincial Labor Minister Gordon Wismer yesterday in an endeavor to bring about settlement of British Columbia coal mines strikes.

Mr. Wismer announced appointment of a board of inquiry comprising E. S. H. Winn, former Workmen's Compensation Board [illegible] member of the Legislature, and Knox Walkem, K.C., Vancouver, to begin an immediate investigation of disputes in this province.

It will have powers equal to those of an industrial disputes commission under the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act.

The minister said collieries had asked for appointment of a conciliation board, but that procedure could not be taken, as they were not a bargaining unit under the act.

Gambling Evidence Implicates N.H.L.

President Clarence Campbell Impressed—"Warrants Suspensions Without a Doubt"

LANSING, Mich., March 2 (AP).—Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, today declared he had evidence of gambling in hockey which "warrants expulsions without a doubt."

The evidence, turned over by Michigan authorities, does not identify any players by name, Campbell said. However, he embarked on trips to Chicago, Boston and New York to complete the investigation.

After a hasty examination of the evidence in private, Campbell said it implicated members of two National Hockey League teams, but that "nothing implicates the Chicago Black Hawks."

The evidence was turned over by Detroit Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy during a conference of state, Detroit and hockey officials on the situation.

Accepting a sealed brown envelope containing the evidence, Campbell and Toy retired to a private office to examine it.

Campbell, returning in half an hour to meet reporters, said that "the information does not indicate anything beyond what has already been described in the press. The evidence alleges that the gambling activities were of a limited nature."

"I am impressed with this evidence," Campbell said. "It gives me a take-off point for my investigation."

Campbell said it would take him three or four days to complete his investigation. Though he reserved the right to make suspensions any time he felt justified, Campbell agreed to report the results of his investigation to Sigler next Monday.

Sigler gave Campbell permission to talk to James Tamer, held in quarantine in Southern Michigan Prison as a parole violator, and Campbell said "it might be advisable" to do so.

Shuttle Meet Starts Today

TORONTO, March 2 (CP).—Four seeded Vancouver players hold the spotlight as contenders for title honors in the Canadian badminton championships opening here tomorrow and continuing until Saturday.

More than 250 players from Vancouver to Saint John, N.B., will participate in the four-day tourney sponsored by the Canadian Badminton Association.

John Samis of Vancouver, winner of the men's singles last year, and Mrs. Clara Lovett, also of Vancouver, women's singles titleholder, are favored to retain their crowns.

A former Vancouver resident, Dick Birch of the Toronto Carlton Club, will likely offer the most opposition to Samis in the singles division.

Elimination matches will be staged tomorrow and Thursday while the semi-final and final games will be held Friday and Saturday, respectively.

Lois Reid and Allan France of Vancouver were given top seeding in the mixed doubles, and Sheila McCarthy and Doreen Clapperton of Montreal, are rated tops in women's doubles.

Ray in K.O. Victory

MIAMI, Fla., March 2 (AP).—Elmer (Violent) Ray, number two heavyweight contender, knocked out Willie Brown, New York City Negro, in two minutes, 15 seconds of the fourth of a scheduled ten-round fight here tonight before 5,200 boxing fans. Ray weighed 200, and Brown 190.

K.V. Juniors Gain Island Hoopla Final

K.V.'s junior boys raptured the Lower Island basketball title in their division by defeating Ladysmith Mac's Construction in the second game of the series at Victoria High School last night, 67-24.

Winners, who had taken the first tilt of the total-point series, 44-20, in a game at Ladysmith, will now meet Cumberland at the Up-Island city on Friday, in the first game for the Island championship.

Although leading from the first quarter on, K.V.'s outburst in the third quarter did the real damage. Winners scored 18 points in this period, while holding their Up-Island opponents to a field goal and a converted free shot.

Scoring was fairly well distributed among K.V. players with Parker's 12 heading the list. Allen tallied 12 for Ladysmith.

List 22 Holdovers On Salem Senators

SALEM, Ore., March 2 (AP).—Contracts have been signed with 22 rookies and holdover players for the Western International League's Salem Senators.

Club Business Manager George Emigh reported the list includes 22 players from last season's squad. Some are now with the parent Portland Beaver club at Riverside, Calif., training camp. The Salem squad will open Spring training at Corvallis later this month.

Rookies signed include John Weston, catcher, Vancouver, B.C. Holdovers among the pitching staff are Hunk Anderson, Vince Lazor, Bill Carr, Dick Sinovic, Bus Sporer, Ken Wyatt, Darlyle Eliason and Gene Peterson.

A.H.L. Mark Is Broken By Sniper

NEW YORK, March 2 (AP).—Scoring ten points in two games during last week Carl Liscombe of Providence Reds, boosted his output to 101 points—an American Hockey League record.

The sharp-shooting left winger of the Reds has collected 44 goals and 57 assists and enjoys a 14-point edge over his nearest competitor, Cliff Simpson of Indianapolis.

Liscombe's 101 points surpasses the mark of 99 rung up by Wally Kilrea for Hershey Bears, in the 1942-43 season.

Liscombe also tops the parade in goal-getting while Centre Walt Stefaniew of Philadelphia has drawn the most assists, 51, official statistics showed today.

Silver Fame Is Favored In National

LONDON, March 2 (AP).—Lord Bicester's nine-year-old gelding Silver Fame, replaced Roimond today as favorite to win the 4½-mile Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree, March 20.

Silver Fame was quoted at 15-1 against a call-over at the Victoria Club, a fraternity of London bookmakers. He closed at 100-6 in the first call-over last week.

Roimond, favorite then at 100-7, fell in a race last week. He slipped to second choice today at 16-1.

Other quotations were 20-1—Rowland Roy, Klaxton, 25-1—Revelry; 28-1—Weevil; 33-1—Caughoo, Cloncarrig, Lough Conn.

The winning jockey in the 1946 Grand National, Robert Petre, suffered a broken leg today. He rode Lovely Cottage then and was scheduled to be aboard the horse again.

Petre, who also trains horses, slipped on a concrete runway while walking out to where his string was being trained on the channel sands at Bognor Regis.

C. J. WINDON
Tail-Up

ONE of features of Australian Wallabies Rugby XV is size of its scrum. Average weight is over 200 pounds. Despite their heftiness, Aussie forwards are nimble with feet and hands and are trained to heel ball to speedy backfielders as often as possible. When touring team meets Victoria's Crimson Tide in international Rugby match at Macdonald Park on Saturday the 3-4-1 scrum formation will be used by both fifteens. Man chiefly responsible for seeing ball gets through Aussie scrum to backfield is Ken Kearney, "hook," who along with other seven players pictured will likely be playing Saturday. His front rank partners will probably be Eric Tweedale and John Fuller, 227-pounder. Among second rank forwards Australians have Phillip Hardcastle, a 220-pounder, "Joe" Kraefft, 231-pounder; Arthur Buchan and Jim Stenmark. Two will play lock positions and other pair will be assigned wing forward positions. In third rank all by himself will likely be C. J. Windon or one of other forwards in 30-man team.

Durnan Agrees To Finish Out Hockey Season

MONTREAL, March 2 (CP).—Goalie Bill Durnan of Montreal Canadiens, who was booed lustily by the crowd at Saturday's National Hockey League game here against Detroit, and later threatened to quit hockey in the dressing-room after the game, will be in the nets when the Habitants meet Leafs in Toronto Wednesday, club officials said tonight.

Following the 0-2 loss to the Wings Saturday when Durnan was given a ride by the fans after he had fanned on a couple of soft shots, the four-time Vezina Trophy winner was reluctant to accompany the team to New York for Sunday's game against the Rangers.

On his return from New York, Big Bill went into a huddle with club officials, admitted that he had a letdown feeling after the reception given him by the Montreal fans, and announced he was all set to play out the season.

The 33-year-old netminder, considered one of the top goalies ever to don pads in the N.H.L., agreed to make the trip to New York where Canadiens were beaten 5-3 after a talk with Coach Dick Irvin and General Manager Frank Selke.

When asked about Durnan, Selke said:

"He didn't want to go to New York. He asked me to get someone else. I told him there was no chance at that late hour, it would be impossible.

"When we talked things over I pointed out that he had had a long and brilliant career, and an honorable record, and he should finish out the season with us like the rest of the fellows were doing. He agreed."

Saanich Thistles soccer eleven will hold a practice at Royal Athletic Park tomorrow at 5 p.m. All players are requested to turn out.

Thunderbirds Enter Olympic Cage Meet

VANCOUVER, March 2 (CP).—University of British Columbia Thunderbirds basketball team today entered the collegiate section of the Canadian Olympic basketball trials.

Coach Bob Osborne wired Canadian Amateur Basketball Association President Laurie Irwin his entry. U.B.C. will probably have to play University of Alberta for the right to meet Saskatchewan and Manitoba. The Western winner will meet the Eastern collegiate winner and the two senior champions in the Olympic tourney.

Graziano Bids For Return To Ring Favor

NEW YORK, March 2 (AP).—Middleweight Champion Rocky Graziano, finally has found a place to demonstrate again his fistic prowess.

Barred in New York State and frowned upon by various sectors of the National Boxing Association, the Washington, D.C., Commission has granted him permission to meet George (Sonny) Horne of Valley Steam, N.Y., in a ten-round non-title fight there April 5.

It will be Graziano's first ring appearance since he won the title from Tony Zale in Chicago last July.

Promoter Goldie Ahearn said today that Graziano's share of the gate will be $1. The remainder of his purse will be donated to some charity, as with 10 per cent of the net receipts.

The donation of his services is considered a move to restore Graziano to the good graces of the fight public and the officials who have banned his appearance. The New York Commission revoked his licence for failure to report an alleged bribe offer involving a bout which never was held.

Last Night's Scores: Rangers 1, Toronto 0. Next games, tonight: Canadiens at Toronto, Rangers at Detroit, Chicago at Boston.

NEW YORK, March 2 (CP).—The New York Rangers provided a stone wall defence through a punch-filled third period to topple the Toronto Maple Leafs 1-0 tonight in a National Hockey League game before 14,916 fans in Madison Square Garden.

Slick Edgar Laprade gave the third-place Rangers their third win this season against Toronto when he clipped his own rebound past Turk Broda at 5.35 of the first period. The Leafs, who had won their last four starts and had defeated Rangers four times and tied twice in previous starts, were confined by the result to their two-point lead over Detroit Red Wings in the league race.

Fighting featured the furious third period with Laprade taking a five-minute penalty after he tangled with Gus Mortson to spark a wild melee in which all players took part. Mortson was also given five minutes on the encounter and later Bill Barilko and Phil Watson took penalties after tangling, the latter for charging and roughing.

Jim Henry made a total of 24 saves for Rangers, nine of them in the third period when the Leafs poured all their strength in a last-minute attempt to tie it up but they failed to break through.

Summary:

First period—1, New York, Laprade 5:30. Penalties — Kullman, Lynn, Gardner, Kennedy.

Second period — Scoring, none. Penalties — Kullman 2, Thomson, Barilko, Trudell.

Third period — Scoring, none. Penalties — Mortson (major), Laprade (major), Barilko, F. Watson (2).

In the Spring League in the girls' inter-high grass hockey, Mt. View battled against Vic High "A" on the latter's grounds yesterday, winning 3-0.

This put Mount View in a tie for second place in the league standing with a total of three points.

The first goal of the match was made minutes after the starting whistle on a fast shot by Lucille Rice. Time was called while Mary William of Vic High, who suffered an injured knee, was replaced by Dot Ratlidge. Both teams continually played the ball to their centres instead of to their wings, with the result that neither team could use their forward line to advantage. Score remained at 1-0 at half-time.

Second half of the play was dominated by the visitors. Vic High's goalie, Marguerite Lloyd, saved several dangerous shots, but Lorraine Hilton and Jean Fraser slipped through to complete scoring for the winners.

Line-ups

Vic High—Marguerite Lloyd, Charlotte Berry, Mary Wilson, Lillian Henderson, Peg Sinclair, Dorothy Stokes, Sol Peltier, Phyllis Sinnamon, Mary Williams, Jean Mills, Dorothy Ratlidge and Joan Simmons. Bowling scores are relative. Experienced bowlers more or less take it for granted when they find they average ten or more pins less on one alley than on another. To the uninitiated it would seem that there should be little discrepancy but there is.

Bowlers who deliver a hook ball will have more success on alleys that "run" than on those that are "stiff." Some bowlers prefer light wood while others feel that they score better with heavier pins. The accepted theory is that a fast delivery will be more likely to leave splits against lighter pins. It is also maintained that lanes made by different manufacturers vary slightly while some alleys are inexplicably harder to score on than others.

In Victoria this season, the question bothering tenpin bowlers is not the difference in scoring on the two alleys but the scores themselves. There has been some improvement in recent weeks in league play but scores have been low and even in the senior leagues, a "600" series is big news.

Contrast the present scores with those of 15 years ago here and the difference becomes apparent. Topping the averages at Gibson's Bowladrome is Harold Paulding with 183. At the Arcade Alleys, Andy Palmer leads with a mark of 188, best in the city. Art Porter is next in line with 180.

In 1933, Art White led with an average of 200.8 pins. E. D. "Lal" LeLacheur was next with 194.5 and ten other bowlers were listed at 190 or better. There were 16 above 180. Among the leaders of that time who are still tossing the 16-pound ball are such veteran keglers as John Quinn, Porter, Paulding, Bill Logie, Al Falk, Bill Norris, Ron Wilson, Percy Stewart, Harry Moulton, Art Howell, Charlie Chislett, Cliff Steele, Wilf Shnuldice, Andy Riddell, Syd Jenkins and Art Manson.

Bowlers are inclined to blame alley surfaces and the pins for their lack of big games. Shellac is usually used on the surfaces but during the war, when it was impossible to procure, a substitute was started and is still being used. Balls do not seem to "grip" as well and the resultant loss of accuracy plays havoc with scores. Present-day pins are of inferior quality and this makes for fewer strikes.

Probably overlooked is the fact that the popularity of fivepin bowling has made serious inroads into the number of tenpin bowlers. The easier variety of bowling has claimed many new devotees in recent years and the trend is reflected in the improving averages in fivepin leagues.

GUESSING DEPARTMENT: Y.M.C.A. to win Island senior "A" basketball title by defeating K.V.'s tonight in fourth game while Eaglettes and Hudson's Bay score in other games. In the N.H.L., Toronto over Canadiens, Chicago over Boston and Detroit over Rangers. Batting average to date .940.

Y.M.C.A. Can Take Cage Crown By Defeating K.V.'s Tonight

Basketball fans are pondering the outcome of the fourth game of the best-of-five series between Y.M.C.A. and K.V.'s for the senior "A" cage crown. The game will highlight a three-game card at the Victoria High School gymnasium tonight and will get under way at 9 p.m.

The "Y" quintette, which dropped five of seven tilts to K.V.'s in league play, reached its peak entering the play-offs and disposed of Canadian Legion, last season's titleholders in straight games before romping to 50-42 and 73-61 triumphs over K.V.'s in the first two games of the final series. K.V.'s changed their tactics completely in the third tilt. Behind a tight defence and a good passing attack they played one of their best games of the season to take a 54-37 decision.

What type of game the clubs will dish out tonight is difficult to forecast as both coaches are reluctant to issue bulletins. Both teams however, are confident. The "Y" claims its tough schedule of six tilts in ten days had a lot to do with their defeat in the last game and feel that the week-long rest has put them into condition to take tonight's fixture. K.V.'s on the other hand, believe that they have found the key to overcoming their opponents attack and feel confident that the series will be all tied up after tonight.

Two fair-sex Island finals will precede the senior game. Eaglettes will meet Courtenay in the first game of a total-point series for the girls' intermediate "A" crown at 7 p.m. and Hudson's Bay will oppose Nanaimo in the first game of a total-point series for the women's senior "B" title one hour later.

No games are scheduled for the local floor on Friday but a good card is assured for Saturday. At 7:30 p.m. Aloes will tangle with Cumberland in the first game of the boys intermediate "A" Island finals and at 9 p.m. the Y.M.C.A. will meet K.V.'s in the fifth game of the senior "A" series if necessary. If the "Y" should defeat K.V.'s tonight, however, they will oppose Alpine Dairy of Seattle in an exhibition fixture.

Discuss Hunting in Logging Areas; Game Club to Invite Angling Group

A Nanaimo proposal that game clubs and logging companies of the Island form an agreement whereby areas used by the companies for logging would be made accessible to club members for hunting purposes was discussed at a meeting of the Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association at the Boilermakers' Hall last night.

The meeting decided to refer the matter to the club's executive for its consideration along with a reappearing Courtenay suggestion that support be given for the blasting of a channel at Stoughton Falls on the Puntledge River so that fish would be able to get up during low water periods.

The proposal for using logging areas for hunting had been tried out with success for a time in Nanaimo localities, it was stated by Ted McConnan, secretary, during his report of the recent affiliated meeting at Nanaimo. Petty thievery, however, had caused the logging operators to request that an efficient method of checking persons using the areas be instituted. Operators were willing to allow hunters on their property providing bona-fide membership in a game club could be shown.

Courtenay notices of motion that when shotguns are used for deer hunting only ball cartridge be permitted, and that snow geese be included in the regulations concerning other geese, were tabled for further information after considerable discussion. Sentiment was mostly against the former proposal.

McConnan reported on differences encountered in the rules of order at the Nanaimo meeting of affiliated Island game groups last Wednesday. He stated that the Victoria club's recommendations were almost all granted. The meeting voted to invite the new executive of the Victoria, Saanich-Inlet Anglers' Association to meetings in an effort to increase co-operation.

Plans to increase the club's membership were outlined by President Fred Hughes. Prior to the meeting members enjoyed some splendid films shown by Bombardier West. Tommy Brown was the winner of a puppy in a contest held by the club.

Short Training Season Causes Beefs--Lardner

By JOHN LARDNER

NEW YORK, March 2.—Several big league managers have beefed bitterly about the curtailment of the training season, which began late this year March 1—under the terms of the new player-owner, company-union emancipation agreement. [illegible] into shape, beginning this late," says Master Melvin Ott, of the New York Giants, for one. "There will be more sore arms this season than ever before."

The plight of the Giants in that case will perhaps not be as poignant as that of some clubs, since a Giant pitcher with one sore arm can always pitch with the other and get approximately the same results. Any way you look at it, the new training season is still a considerable advance over the days when Pop Anson first took his athletes to Hot Springs to boil the beer out of them for a week or so before the season started.

ROUSH SHIRKS TRAINING

Even in pre-emancipation times, a player who did not care for Spring training could do his curtailing to suit himself. The best way to get yourself a shorter training grind was to hold out for more money. Eddie Roush, the great outfielder, was the foremost student of this doctrine. Mr. Roush held out every year to avoid too much perspiration in the sunshine belt.

"What kind of salary do you want? Would fifteen thousand dollars be enough?" an interviewer once asked Eddie during one of his holdouts.

"Off the record," replied Mr. Roush, "a hundred thousand would not be enough—not until April."

THERE WERE REASONS

It was not just the actinic rays, the sweating, and the running that tempted ball players to duck Spring training in the old days. Standards of living on the training circuit were not too high. The hotels the boys stopped at were largely fleabags. The food was second-rate. The ball fields were full of holes, and travel between one exhibition stand and another was by day coach on Toonerville lines.

The Brooklyn team once threatened a strike over the steaks at the place where it trained in Florida, the steaks being roughly the size and texture of .50 calibre machine-gun bullets. The strike broke, however, against the class consciousness of your late uncle Wilbert Robinson, the manager of the Dodgers. Robbie and his wits were eating at the same place as the athletes.

"If these steaks are good enough for mamma and me," yelled the manager indignantly, "they are good enough for a lot of red-necked ball players!"

CARDS ENTERTAINED

[illegible] but the prospect of two months' work in the heat for nothing, which was the general rule up till this year, drove the boys to look for as much outside entertainment as possible. Of all modern ball clubs, the St. Louis Cardinals of the Gas-house Gang period went in hardest for relaxation in the south. One of your correspondent's finest training memories is of Mr. Pepper Martin giving sliding lessons in the lobby of the club's hotel in St. Petersburg, Fla., to an impostor named Lou Mandel—also known as the all-American rookie—who used to ask for tryouts with ball teams in order to eat meals for a day or two at the club's expense.

It was Mr. Martin, also, who promoted a bout at the St. Petersburg boxing arena between two bellhops from the hotel, one of them managed by Martin. Before the bout the Missouri Mudcats—Martin on the harmonica, Bill McGee on the fiddle, Lon Warneke on the jug—provided musical entertainment to get the crowd hungry for blood. Dizzy Dean refereed the fight and, having a small bet on one party, took 30 seconds to count ten over his man when the latter went down in the first round.

The Cardinals did a certain amount of training, too, but they did not overdo it. As Mr. Dean pointed out, they were always down to playing weight on the salaries they were getting.

Racing Groups to Request Cut In Taxes From B.C. Legislature

VANCOUVER, March 2 (CP).—Racing organizations throughout the Lower Mainland today planned to seek taxation relief from the British Columbia Legislature, which now is convening for its third session at Victoria.

The British Columbia Turf and Country Club, which earlier announced closure of its plant at Lansdowne Park because of deficits in operation, also cancelled plans for its 1948 meeting when its request for a larger percentage of pari-mutuel receipts was refused.

Dr. L. H. Appleby, president of the British Columbia Breeders' Society, said last night the society would send pleas for taxation relief to Finance Minister Anscomb and Agriculture Minister Putnam.

"Our message will protest abandonment of racing in consideration of the men who own farms and horses, and whose investment in the sport approaches $6,000,000," he said.

An official statement, issued Monday by Al Hardy, managing director of the local turf club, said: "Under the present taxation setup, under which the Government takes 13 per cent out of every pool (which is the highest racing tax in the world), the future appears hopeless."

He said the directors of British Columbia Turf feel that racing should be put on a more equitable basis if racing is to continue, and that the present setup can only lead to disaster.

"A profitable and growing breeding industry . . . will bring in more revenue in the long run than the present policy, which is slowly strangling it to death," the statement concluded.

$23,515,000 STORY...

TOTAL THESE FIGURES and you get the $23,515,000 story of Northern Pacific improvements in the last year. They add up to better service next time you take a trip or ship some freight along the Main Street of the Northwest.

$5,246,000 was invested by NP last year in new, streamlined passenger equipment for the NORTH COAST LIMITED—new diesels, diner-lunch cars, coach buffet-lounge cars—ALL now in service.

$8,556,000 was spent on our roadbed to give you a smoother ride on the NORTH COAST LIMITED. This included laying 30,000 tons of heavier rail, putting down new ballast, reducing curves.

$2,238,000 went into NP plant additions to keep our equipment—all along Main Street—in the pink of condition. A diesel shop, a freight house, a power plant were finished; other work was under way.

$7,475,000 bought new freight cars and power—500 all-steel boxcars (of 1,700 freight cars we're building at our Brainerd, Minn., shops), 250 all-steel refrigerator cars, a fleet of fleet 6000-h.p. diesels.

THIS STORY'S STILL NOT FINISHED—for we couldn't get all the equipment we had on order, couldn't complete all our planned plant and main-line improvements. So we've earmarked $18,490,000 more to continue the NP progress story this year!

5 IN MEMORIAM

CHARLEY—In loving memory of Mother, Mrs. Marge Ann Charley, who passed away March 3, 1947.

Her thoughts were all so full of us
She never would forget,
And so we think that where she is,
She must be watching yet.

The angels keep their watch up there;
Please God, just let her know
That we down here do not forget;
We love and miss her so.

—Ever remembered by her daughters, Eunice, Dawn and family.

CURTIS—In loving memory of Alfred Curtis, who died March 3, 1945.
—Remembered always by his wife and family.

5 IN MEMORIAM

HARRIS—In loving memory of a dear husband and dad, Edward H. Harris, who passed away March 3, 1947.

Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days;
In silence he suffered, in patience he bore,
Till God called him home, to suffer no more.
Those who knew him, all will know,
How much we lost one year ago.

God saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."

[illegible] his loving wife, sons Teddy and Walter, and daughter, Evelyn.

—PEACE ON EARTH—

INSISTENCE on the possibility of another war, will NOT bring the peace . . . we all long for. As a matter of fact, 'twill bring war faster, if we dwell on in harmony & considered disaster. The thing as I see it, we seek & find, is the establishment of peace . . . in our OWN fearful minds. By overcoming envy, strife & greed, each individual can fleetly succeed. In doing HIS part and help to achieve in the eventual establishment of world peace. We mortals are fools as tenaciously we cling material things little happiness bring. We ALL in some way are fighting for them, instead of listening for the song of Bethlehem THAT peers in the hearts of shepherds of old, that came to the prophets . . . meek & high-souled. Repeated ever since,—over & over again, "On Earth Peace, good will toward men." For mankind it will be a happy day when THIS ideal of Christianity comes to stay. And ALL people shift their action and thought from hatred & war, to good-will, dear-bought. THIS victory the prophets saw long ago, as in (Isaiah 2:4) it does plainly show.

"They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

Destroying itself, is evil's only birth. LOVE is the power, and . . . PEACE ON EARTH.

MOTOR COURT, STORE OR BUSINESS
HERE'S YOUR CHOICE

An outstanding bargain in a grocery, confectionery and general city store. A business that will stand the closest investigation and operated by the owner for the past 14 years. It carries a very large stock and premises are large and well heated. The present volume averages well over $5,000 per month with a very high markup. Excellent opportunity for expansion. Large living quarters are also available and the tenancy is excellent. The present owners are anxious to sell and are prepared to do business for only $15,000

Motor court and trailer camp, well situated on the Island Highway. Contains eight modern units and properly equipped trailer accommodation. These units are well furnished with expensive furniture and command a good rate of rental. The income from this court should be well over $10,000 this year and it is being offered at the low price of $32,000

Completely equipped apartment building. Five suites of three rooms each, in a building with all the necessaries. Hot water oil furnace, refrigerators, electric stoves and fireplaces. Hardwood floors, garages, lockers, good clotheslines. Situated in very good district close to transportation. Overhead low and property in excellent condition. One suite will be vacant for the new owner and the revenue at the present time is a gross of $2,328 per annum. Present rentals are very nominal, being based on prewar rates and so there is no chance of them being reduced. An excellent opportunity for someone looking for a small home with a tidy income each month, yet not tied to an apartment which needs a lot of service. The asking price is $21,000, but it is essential that this property be sold immediately.

LUCKY FOR LOVE

"S'cuse, Big Eyes. I was telling you that sister Clara appears in the floor show of the Blue Parrot tonight. She waves in and waves out again with a wisp or two of chiffon where they'll do the most good [illegible] how, she won't go short on curves."

"Al!" terrified. "I must stop her!"

"You and how many other armies?" Al Martino urged Marilyn back into her chair. "Take it easy, Little Sister. The only way you can cure that dame is to let her knock herself out."

* * * *

Marilyn awakened to the insistent clamor of an alarm clock.

She sat up in bed, trying valiantly to escape from sleep.

"Oh-h," Kathleen Garvan in the twin bed alongside, groaned "Strangle that beast, pple-a-s-e." She dug her head into the pillow.

"No use," Marilyn said, swinging her bare feet over the side of her bed. "In two minutes it will start yowling all over again."

"If it does I'll take steps," Kathleen muttered. "Toss it a bone. It's driving me crazy."

"Not half as crazy as you'll be if you wake up an hour from now and find your'e late for the office. Might as well rise and shine, Kathie. I'll start the coffee. Sugar buns and real cream for breakfast. Get going or I'll wolf them all myself."

"Oh—darn!" Kathleen struggled out of the covers, "Whoever thought up alarm clocks, anyhow? Some day I'll find the pest and strangle him with my bare hands. Lynn, I want to get back into bed and tell Mimi the maid to bring me my breakfast on a large silver tray."

"Oh yes? While ordering, Kathie, tell Mimi to bring me a wreath of moonbeams. Indeed a new tiara."

Marilyn and Kathleen were sharing a two-room and kitchenette apartment in East Tenth Street. "Bring your alpine sticks," Kathleen had told their friends. "We're four flights up, and you have to do your own climbing."

Sharing an apartment was a convenient, economic and happy arrangement. Convenient for work, economic in that it cut living expenses in two, happy because it provided companionship both girls wanted and needed. Neither presumed to intrude on the private affairs of the other. [illegible] even, in mutual confidences, mutual trust, a community of interest in their tabloid home.

"The coffee is good and the sugar buns are out," Marilyn reported from the kitchenette.

"I'll squeeze the oranges," Kathleen called. "Hop into the shower and make it snappy. I'll save my shower until after I've wrestled with the oranges. That's when I'll need it. What's in the ice-box for supper? The way I feel now I'm coming straight home from the office, pile myself a plate of food and get bread crumbs all over my bed."

"Help yourself," Marilyn laughed. "Bruce is taking me to a place he's just discovered. Sure-nuff Southern fried chicken and waffles. We'll probably take in a movie afterward."

"Yes? Seems to me this Bruce person is a habit around our house. One can't open the front door without stumbling over him."

"Don't be silly, Kathie. Bruce—well he's sort of sorry for me. I'm alone, he's alone—his mother and father are dead you know, he has no sisters, no brothers—only distant relatives——"

"Hey, pardner, don't tell me he wants you to be a sister to him. Men with all his money, looks and position never need to be alone. Besides, I've seen him look at you and his eyes weren't saying 'Sister.'"

"If you don't stop teasing and go into action, Cookie will have plenty to say when we report late at Clarco."

When Marilyn came out of the bath, Kathleen was scanning the morning paper. They shared it riding the subway to work.

"I've been slumming through Tom Peep's gossip column," she said. "There's a morsel in it you won't like. You may as well see it now and be prepared. Darn that sister of yours, anyhow. And just when we're going along so smoothly! Now I suppose you'll start worrying yourself into a lather again."

Marilyn took the paper. Here it was, the Keyhole Kolumn, and yes, at the very top . . . "What slightly faded lovely of the night clubs appeared at what hot spot last yawning and scared what battered playboy clean out of a side exit? . . and what highly publicized Queen of Beauty is pouting today because she did not know her knight-errant had that kind of past? . . . Oh well, the Queen's throne has been rocking ever since she started using it for a stepladder . . ."

Provincial Liquor Bill May Exceed Record $48 Per Capita Last Year

Spendings on liquor in British Columbia during the fiscal year ended last March 31 were equivalent to nearly $48 a head, for every man, woman and child in the province.

And they are still climbing.

Totaling $47,961,515, the province's that of the previous financial year by $6,218,069 to set another new high record.

It yielded $14,759,257 net profit to the province, $6,280,000 above the estimate, and representing roughly one-fourth of British Columbia's total revenue for the year

These were figures given in the port, tabled in the Legislature yesterday.

An interim report covering the succeeding six months, up to October 31 last, showed liquor spendings soaring even higher, and indicated they may exceed $52,000,000 when the current fiscal year is ended.

Total of sales during the six months was $26,257,720, which yielded the province a net profit of $7,521,030, against $8,342,206 for the corresponding six months of the preceeding year.

British Columbia's $14,760,000 net profit for the last fiscal year compared with $11,194,000 in 1945-46, $7,881,500 the year before, and $6,046,258 the year before that.

The board's report showed that $26,594,830 was spent on wines and spirits, $10,366,874 on beer, ale and stout.

Federal Government took $8,552,501 in duty, excise and sales tax.

Sales to individuals at liquor stores totaled $38,351,660, to beer

Red Cross Outpost Hospitals Serve B.C. Isolated Homes

Red Cross outposts are just that One of the Red Cross activities for which $40,000 is being asked in the current Greater Victoria drive, is the six Outpost Hospitals in British Columbia. Six more are under construction.

Outpost nurses travel many miles of frontier country, over rough roads, through snow and mud to reach the sick in isolated homes

McBride Outpost, who was a volunteer at blood clinics in Victoria, illustrat the remoteness of the work in a letter to a friend here She travels in anything available, but the most unusual ride was when she was taken back to the hospital on a bulldozer Shortly after she arrived at McBride, there was a polio epidemic, and all patients were treated at the outpost hospital

Last year, nurses traveled 8,818 miles in British Columbia, many on horseback, in sleighs or by boats across choppy seas. They made 810 visits to homes and 53 visits to schools to inspect 1,265 children.

Speaker Holds Settings Mar Shakespeare

Productions of Shakespeare have been marred by "stage sets we have been brought up with since the 18th century." Dr. G. G. Sedgewick, head of the English Department of the University of British Columbia, told a meeting of the University Extension Society in Victoria High School Monday night.

"On the Elizabethan stage, the actors were everything," Dr. Sedgewick said "If you are producing Shakespeare locally, see how little scenery you can use. Then the audience can turn its attention to speech and acting, which are all."

He said that place is not important in Shakespeake's plays, it is "wherever you need to be" and that if it is necessary to know, the author always mentioned it in the speech.

He deplored the recent practice of cutting parts of the plays, pointing out that little can be eliminated without losing essential scenes.

"Shakespeare's plays were made to be played, not read. Some of his best were not even printed during his lifetime We don't see Shakespeare played enough. We very rarely see him played well, by a well-balanced company of intelligent people who know how to speak the lines because they understand and feel them properly."

Dr Sedgewick said Shakespeare was "as great a genius as the human race has produced."

Need Urgent For Children

More than 50 per cent of all children born in Europe after the World War have died of malnutrition, and millions more will die of starvation unless immediate assistance is provided.

This grim message was presented by H B. Banner yesterday to the Kiwanis Club at a luncheon held in the Empress Hotel He spoke on behalf of the Canadian Appeal for Children in Europe, a campaign started some time ago, and scheduled to last another month.

"This appeal is of vital urgency," he said, noting that "what happens on one side of the world will definitely affect the other

"We can not expect one side of the world to be healthy and the other side festered and rotten. We must do something before it is too late . . . Every second counts."

City Police Court

James Conley, who was convicted in city police court last week of stealing $60 from Lionel and Lindsay Dickson, proprietors of the Victoria Garage, Douglas Street, was sentenced to serve three months in jail at hard labor when he appeared before Magistrate Henry C. Hall yesterday.

Chin Law, a Chinese, was fined $50 and $5 costs when he was convicted in city police court yesterday of supplying an intoxicant to an Indian.

Stresses Need For Policy On Sewerage

Belief that a definite policy in the matter of sewerage is needed in the Parklands district in Esquimalt was expressed by E. Fulcher, superintendent of works, at an Esquimalt council meeting last night. Mr. Fulcher recommended that all proposed developments in the area be referred to the Town Planning Commission Council agreed.

"There is a strong possibility that several residences will be erected in the Parklands district in the near future," Mr. Fulcher said in his report.

The water service will be laid soon in the area, he added, and ordinary septic tanks with effluent drains to road ditches should not be allowed.

"If a sewer system cannot be installed, a proper septic tank with tile field should be required. It would be a pity to have a promising development spoiled by improper facilities." Mr Flucher concluded.

He was instructed by council to make a full investigation of distribution of gasoline for municipal work.

Councillor A C Wurtele was appointed to represent the council on the executive of the British Columbia Agricultural Association.

Question Ruled Out of Order

EDMONTON, March 3 (CP)—Speaker Peter Dawson of the Alberta Legislature ruled today that questions about Royal Canadian Mounted Police raids in Edmonton to seize documents were out of order because the questions were about cases still before the courts.

The questions came from Harper Prowse, Alberta Liberal Party leader and army member of the House, following raids here last Thursday on the office of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire and on the home of an I.O.D.E. official.

The raids were carried out in connection with conspiracy to publish defamatory libel charges against Jack Kent Cooke of Toronto, Harold Dingman of Ottawa, and Dr. Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa. Letters and files seized in the raids were returned today.

I.O.D.E. Letters, Files Returned by R.C.M.P.

EDMONTON, March 3 (CP)—Six days after their surprise raids, Royal Canadian Mounted Police today returned most of the letters and files seized under warrants to the home of Mrs. Eleanor Griffith, provincial secretary of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and the I.O.D.E. central office here.

The raids were carried out last Thursday in connection with the conspiracy to publish libel charges against Jack Kent Cooke, Harold Dingman and Dr Charlotte Whitton. The charges arose out of an article in New Liberty magazine, entitled "Babies for Export" dealing with Alberta's welfare administration.

Quebec Seizes Art Treasures

OTTAWA, March 3 (CP)—Government sources tonight confirmed reports that the Quebec Government has seized the long-disputed Polish art treasures and said a Federal statement may be made in the Commons tomorrow, possibly by Justice Minister Ilsley or External Affairs Minister St. Laurent.

A spokesman said the Federal Government was aware of the new location of the treasures, said by The Ottawa Journal to have been "impounded" by the Provincial Government and "retained pending decision as to ownership," and had known of the seizure the day it happened.

This source also reported that a Federal investigation is under way and that the tenor of the statement which may be made tomorrow will depend on the extent to which the niceties of Federal and provincial jurisdiction have been violated, if at all.

TREAT PARALYSIS VICTIMS

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—Good progress is being made with infantile paralysis here. Only a few of the victims of the epidemic will be permanently disabled, and two Sister Kenny technicians from the Minneapolis Institute arrived in January.

Saanich May Use Relief Refund For Ward Road Improvements

Saanich municipal engineer, H. D. Dawson, was instructed by the council last night to submit a report on the feasibility of dividing the $40,000 relief fund among the seven wards for road improvement.

Object of the plan, proposed by Councillor L. H. Passmore, Ward [illegible] roads for the expansion of present bus routes, now impossible due to the poor roads.

"In my ward we have not had a decent road with the exception of Gorge Road and a part of Douglas Street since the municipality was incorporated. We haven't any now. It's my duty to put down at least one decent road so that we can get adequate transportation."

Councillor Reginald Oenn, Ward Five, opposed the plan on the ground that the $40,000 would be [illegible] when it could be used for something important.

"I'm not in favor of using special funds for general purposes. It will not solve our problem permanently," he said.

Stating that his problems in Ward One were extensive, Councillor Thomas Alexander stated that it was impossible to do all necessary road work from ward appropriations.

On the vote the council divided four to three.

A March of Time film, "Music in America," was shown to members of the Victoria Electric Club yesterday at the Strathcona Hotel dining room. It dealt with all varieties of music, including classical, jazz and today's swing versions.

A brief historical background of each type of music was included in the commentary. The half-hour show was conducted by Robert Patrick, secretary of the club.

Next meeting will be the annual meeting at Lougheed's Banquet Club, starting at 6:30 p.m. This meeting will also be observed as the organization's regular quarterly gathering, reports Austin Goward, chairman of the publicity committee.

Arbitration Board Named in Dispute

Appointment of an arbitration board in a seniority dispute between Vancouver Island Drivers, Division 234 of Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and Other Transport Workers and Dowell's Pacific Transfer and Storage Co., Ltd., was announced last night by R. Jones, president of the Island drivers.

The union claims violation of seniority provisions of the agreement.

FREEDOM isn't FREE!

Freedom, like anything worth having, carries a price tag. We can't enjoy it without accepting its responsibilities.

There's freedom of speech—and we have to accept the responsibility for what we say.

There's freedom to worship as we please—and the responsibility is ours to see that others aren't persecuted, either.

There are lots of freedoms, and they all have their responsibilities.

The freedom to use whiskey for instance.
That carries a three-fold responsibility: to ourselves, to our families and to our communities.

As the House of Seagram has so often said, it is to drink moderately or not at all!

Men who Think of Tomorrow Practice Moderation Today!

Parents Near Courtenay Keep Children at Home

COURTENAY, March 2.—Parents [illegible] of Courtenay will keep them home beginning Wednesday morning as a protest against the condition of roads in the district. Nearly 400 youngsters attending four schools in the district are affected.

Decision was made at a meeting of parents held in Grantham Community Hall.

Reporting on the condition of the roads, Alan Woodrow, school bus driver, said they were a constant menace to the safety of children he transported to school each day. Lack of adequate drainage measures had resulted in deep potholes, and high brush at the corners made it impossible to see traffic approaching from side roads.

T. E. Dennison, chairman, said Hon. E. C. Carson, H. J. Welch, M.L.A., and J. L. Roe, district engineer, following a tour of the district last Spring, had given assurances the roads would be fixed, but that very [illegible]

Forecasts Busy Future For Port Alberni Area

PORT ALBERNI, March 2.—Culminating ceremonies which marked the opening of the new Woodward Store at Port Alberni, Hon. W. C. Woodward was host here today at a banquet called by Alberni District Board of Trade. Members heard the president of the retail organization reiterate a statement he made two years ago that Port Alberni stands [illegible] of British Columbia.

Mr. Woodward gave as his reasons the fact that the Albernis were the centre of a tremendous primary industry, that where primary industries were established it was not long before secondary industries followed, that the port was the natural site for a big city with one of the world's largest potential harbors; that it was just emerging from the chrysalis stage, and that it had a perfectly natural setting for a great high-class tourist industry.

He gave the retail trade capacity of Alberni Valley as $6,000,000, and said that about half of the amount had been going out in mail order business which he trusted the new Woodward Store would be of assistance in retaining at Port Alberni.

Mr. Woodward cited the industrial payroll of the Albernis in 1945 as $2,114,000, against Nanaimo's $667,000 the same year. He saw no reason why the Albernis should not become the supply centre for the entire Northern Island.

He took occasion to remark that it was a "disgrace" that a centre with the third largest payroll in the Province should, two years after the end of the war, have such a deplorable road leading to it. He believed that Premier Byron Johnson would recognize it as a fact and act accordingly.

The meeting was also addressed by J. W. Sutterfield, controller of the Woodward organization, who drew attention to the rapid increase in population of the area, pointing out that Nanaimo today was rated at 6,600, against 6,100 in 1901, whereas the Albernis had risen to more than 10,000 from 6,000 in 1931. Nanaimo on the one hand had enjoyed long and steady growth, whereas community development in the Albernis had been difficult due [illegible]

He predicated more permanent and settled development would result from increasing retail business. He said business in British Columbia must compete favorably in price and quality with the great mail order houses of the East.

Games were played in which the three patrols competed against each other.

Later Mr. Thring addressed a meeting of the Salt Spring Island Branch of the Canadian Legion in the Fulford Community Hall. The next day he attended a luncheon at the Log Cabin, Ganges, when a troop committee was formed. At this meeting those elected as members of the committee were J. S. Acland, chairman; Mrs. A. M. Board to Proceed With New School

Solarium History

Following a brief outline of the history of the Solarium, which had the late Queen Alexandra as a patron, Mr. Parsons said 1,300 patients had been treated since its inception. The administrator paid tribute to service clubs and the Solarium Junior League, for their efforts.

He extended an invitation to a delegation from View Royal club to visit the Solarium to determine the best way to work to advantage for the institution. Definite action will be decided upon at the next meeting, Mrs. T. W. Simpson, director, said.
